

Oak Ridges youth program needs additional volunteers

The youth program held Tuesdays from 7 to 9:30 pm at Lake Wilcox School needs volunteers who can help with arts and crafts, especially pottery. If you have some experience in this field and would like to be involved in the program, please contact Tom Dukelow at 773-5705.

The program for the remainder of February will focus mainly on gymnastics, yoga and cooking. All young people between the ages of 13 and 17 are welcome. Refreshments are sold.

The weekly TAB group will this week be finishing their decoupage project under the guidance of Mrs. Gwen Halliday. The guest February 13 will be Mrs. Pauline Barrett of the Richmond Hill and Thornhill Area Family Services.

The group meets weekly Thursday afternoons 1:30 to 3:30 at St. Paul's Church, Sunset Beach Road. Babysitting provided.

The Lake Wilcox Community Workers will meet February 11 at 11:45 am at St. Paul's Church.

The annual kindergarten registration for September 1975 will be held February 11 at Oak Ridges and Lake Wilcox Public from 1:30 to 4:30 and from 7 to 9 pm.

All children whose fifth birthday falls on or before December 31, 1975 are eligible. Parents are requested to bring proof of their child's age.

St. Paul's United will be having a pancake supper from 5-7 pm February 11, $2 for adults, $1 for children under 12.

Menu: pancakes, syrup, sausages and dessert. Pancakes are traditional fare for Shrove Tuesday, as the following day Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent.

Janet says

Record switch sweet revenge

"There'll be murder done in this house before the day's out!" That is what anyone would have heard this afternoon at my place.

What brought on these dire words? Well, it all began like this — I was in the kitchen, hurriedly flinging together a meat loaf — my weekly venture into the world of haute cuisine — when I became aware of the silence.

Now silence is all very well, and sometimes very necessary, but when it becomes noticeable and annoying that's the time to get rid of it.

I decided to put on a record and sing along while completing my culinary efforts. Judy Collins, I thought, would be the ideal choice and I could warble merrily away while I worked.

Our record collection is housed in a rather smart brown cardboard box which bears the name of the last owner in elegant lettering on the side "Fevés Au Lard" (who was, I have heard, something of a windbag).

I started to search the box for the record I had in mind. I found it on the third try — which is a record of another sort. At least I found the sleeve. The record itself was missing. Horrors!

I peered inside the box and flipped frantically through the hundred odd albums.

"Ootheyells stole me record?" I screeched. Silence.

"How is it?" I asked of no one in particular — which is just as well as no one was there.

"How is it?" I repeated, "that it's always my records that gets lost?"

"Always my records that end up next to the peanut butter and jelly sandwich on the kitchen floor?" More silence.

Oh, the injustice of the whole thing was now weighing heavily on me. I turned back to the box and eyed the contents maliciously.

"How come you chipmunks are always in the same place — and YOU!" I addressed the collection of Beethoven reclining roughly at the classical end of the box.

"How come nobody loses you?" My voice rose in a wail and tailed off into the cringing atmosphere.

I eventually found my record tucked away down in the box underneath an old newspaper, my daughter's lost school report, an apple core and a candle the exact replica of a pineapple (with teeth marks on the side) which I use to divide my records from THEIRS.

While I was busy retrieving my precious record and muttering soothing phrases to it, I indulged in some idle fancies. Revenge!

A little later on I was back at work on the neglected meat loaf, cackling hilariously and imagining the reaction of the classical fan when next Beethoven's Fifth is played and we all hear the bell-like tones of The Chipmunks. Or perhaps the Military Marches record will be the first choice, in which case we'll hear Joan Baez sing "We Shall Overcome".

I hope I'm there to see all the faces when instead of The Rolling Stones, they hear the original cast of "South Pacific". I also switched Janis Joplin with a 1940's recording of Merry Christmas Carols and Steppen Wolf with Frankie Lane's "Rawhide".

Now I'm off to do some exercises — running on the spot — I may need to make a quick exit soon.

Carrville United congregation pot luck supper, vote

The Carrville United Church held its annual congregational meeting on Wednesday of last week.

The evening started with a delicious Pot Luck Supper which was enjoyed by all 40 members present. The Rev. Stan Snowden was chairman and opened with a film, on the 50 years of the United Church.

The members of the session now are Robert Walker, Mrs. Jean Bushell, Ellie Park, George Veitch, Jack Bushell, and life members Edgar Anning and Alex Somerville.

The members of the committee of stewards are Gordon Read, Mrs. Helen Baker, Mr. Veitch, Michael Harrison, Mrs. Eleanor Read, Mr. Bushell, Douglas Cramm and Wallie Wood.

The new Sunday school superintendent is Mrs. Walter Macdougall.

Sock hop earnings buy tennis tables

Bayview just got two new additions to the school last week, two brand new ping pong tables for use in the three lunch periods.

They were bought with the money made at the sock hop this year.

Basketball victories
Now into the world of sports.

Wednesday of last week Bayview's Junior Basketball Team came out on top in a very tense game against rivals Richmond Hill, by a score of 52-49. Kevin McLeod was high scorer of the game with 15 points.

Going onto the seniors, they also had a super victory, taking Richmond Hill High 70-29. Trent McCabe and Marty Armstrong both played a good game.

Into a rougher category, Bayview added another victory, thanks to our wrestling team.

The scores were as follows: Bayview 95 as they doubled Stoffville with 45, and almost tripled Markham's score of 33.

Anyone who would like information about the coming dance, with Ian Thomas & Grease Ball Boogie Band, can call Wayne Whitaker at 884-3083, to get tickets beforehand.

Oak Ridges - Lake Wilcox

Frank Fidler of Richmond Hill and Thornhill Area Family Services and the topic will be "Emotional Wholeness".

The junior young people will be having a toboggan party (weather permitting) at St. Mark's Chapel, Yonge Street, Oak Ridges.

Advance notice — Ash Wednesday, special Lenten preparation service at 8 pm.

A reminder to those who like to dance — a Valentine dance, sponsored by the Lions will be held February 15 at the Lions Den, Bond Lake Arena. Dancing to the music of DJ Ron Cook from 8 to 1 am. Tickets are $18 per couple which includes a cold buffet and bar. Door and spot prizes will be given. Tickets from any Lion or by calling Dave Neil at 773-4378.

The 1st Oak Ridges Ladies' Scouting Auxiliary will hold a potluck supper at the home of President Johanna Vahle February 12 at 8 pm.

The Oak Ridges second annual spring fair is to be held May 31 at Bond Lake Arena. The parade theme is "Springtime in The Oaks" so hurry up with your ideas for your floats.

Fair co-ordinator is Bill

Reddy and the fair this year will be run with the combined help of the Bond Lake Skating Club, the two local hockey associations and the Lions.

Wanted: Continuous entertainment all day long! Anyone wishing to participate should contact Mrs. Maribell McKenzie 773-5922 or Shirley Smith at 773-5754. Booths are available by writing to Mrs. Mary Near, RR 2, Aurora. Other committees will be named at a later date.

Don't forget we need people for entertainment, contests, floats, bands, etc., to make this a bigger and better fair than last year. Participation is the name of the game!

Seniors
There was a good turnout at The Wheelhouse for the euchre night January 27. Prize winners were Lillian Peters, Doris Fairhall, Evelyn Knuckey, M. Nightingale, Shirley Smith and Dorothy Ash. The door prize was won by Lillian Peters and Robbie Cook won the draw for a special prize donated by Roy Weaving.

The Lions have challenged the seniors to a darts match in the near future.

Afternoon euchres will be held at The Wheelhouse on the first and third Wednesdays of each month at 1:30 pm. Admission charge is 25 cents and there will be cash prizes given according to the attendance — big crowd, big prizes. Refreshments will be provided.

Also, the seniors will be holding evening euchres on the last Monday of each month. This month's will be February 24.

Hockey
Oak Ridges Minor Hockey Association will be holding a dance February 22 at the Lions Den, Bond Lake Arena. Dancing to the music of DJ Don Holgate from 8 pm to 1 am. Tickets $6 a couple, buffet included. Bar extra.

Day nursery
King Township School Trustee Margaret Coburn will speak at the King City Day Nursery School February 11 on "Schooling Begins". A discussion will be held on other matters concerning parents and school, also. The place is King City United Church from 9:30 to 11 am. All parents are welcome and free babysitting will be provided.
