I've got a hang-up about Street. I started out by calling him Mark Street. Finally got that straightened out so what did I do? Right. Called him Kevin Guest the other night. Always have trouble with streets. Even in my home town I can't remember the name of streets.

The Rams achieved that "balance" we're talking about by coming up with some fine locals such as the aforementioned Mabley, Digger Dunkley, along with Dave Stuart and Jimmy Graham (who hustles all the time), Jimmy Clement, deadly shot, plus others like Steve Morrison who has the best slap shot on the team from the defensive position. Low, just off the ice, straight.

Goaltending, key

The key, however, will be in the goaltending. "I've always maintained," said Brimblecombe, "that you only go as far as your goaltending takes you. If ours come up with a hot hand we'll be in there."

So it's up to Thornhill's Brian Stankiewicz and Doug Brumwell. Both are good goalies, sometimes terrific.

My prediction? Oh, all right. I'll take the Rams in six games. No wonder I work in the basement.

Odd Items

Incidentally, The Rams and Nats play their second game at Westwood Arena tomorrow night and next Saturday and are back in The Hill Tuesday night at 8 pm. Get out and give the kids a boost. It'll be rough, tough fast hockey. Believe me.

Soccer talk

Looks like a booming year for both minor and senior soccer in Richmond Hill. Right now we have the Rangers and United in the Newmarket and District Soccer League.

Come the summer we'll have yet another Richmond Hill entry as presently being put together by John Kernohan. John already has a line-up of 14 players but is looking for more.

The team practices every Wednesday at 7:30 pm at McConaghy school so, if you're interested, be there or give John a call at 884-7947. More on this later.

Magna Midgets winners two

The Richmond Hill Magna Midgets carried a hot hand on the weekend as they bounced Unionville 5-2 Saturday and then took Orillia to task by 3-0 right in Orillia.

That game saw Steve Rowe leading the offensive with two goals and one assist with Tim Polhamus getting the other goal as well as drawing an assist. Dave Stockall was credited with two assists.

Goalie Paul Norman earned the shutout and received excellent assistance by a defensive corps of Gord Sinfield, Dave Stockall and Gerry Fortin. On Saturday it was Eric Thompson scoring two goals with singles to Zen Ferrone, Gord Sinfield and Tim Polhamus. Assists to Polhamus, Gerry Fortin, two Zen Ferrone, Gord Sinfield, two Rob Frater and Steve Rowe.

The previous week saw the Magna's win streak stopped at five as they ran into the same Orillia team who, on this occasion, whipped them 6-1. Lone goal for Richmond Hill was Steve Rowe assisted by Dave Brooke.

Another game saw Magna defeat the Minor Midget A team of Richmond Hill by 9-4 and then travel to Unionville and defeat that team 7-0.

Goals in this game were scored by Brian Smith, Gord Sinfield, Cam Green, Steve Rowe, Dave Brooke, Zen Ferrone, and Eric Thompson. Assists went to Thompson, two, Gord Casselman, Cam Green, Dave Brooke, Dave Stockall, Steve Rowe, Doug Williams and Gerry Fortin. The shutout went to Dave Plaxton who played a steady game.

Playoff battle Alliance leads Thornhill 2-1

The Richmond Hill Alliance Sports Juveniles bounced back from an opening game loss to down Thornhill twice by 3-2 and 7-

4 locals spring to the offensive early as Richard Hopson, Dave Berseth, Don MacPhee and Scott Davey poured home goals before Thornhill managed their first tally. The second period saw Tony Robinson count for the home side while Thornhill closed the scoring with two goals of their own.

The third period saw Berseth, freshly back from an injury, needle his way through the entire Thornhill squad for a goal. Thornhill had a two-man advantage at the time.

Thornhill, in never-say-die fashion, whacked home two more goals before the game ended but Richmond Hill's Scott Davey scored the final goal.

Alliance stunned The series opener February 3 at Richmond Hill saw the visitors' stun the locals with a 5-3 victory despite an early 1-0 lead by Alliance which saw Tom Lamb scoring assisted by Don MacPhee and Bob Russell.

Thornhill tied the game but Tony Robinson made it 2-1. The game went into overtime as Thornhill tied it in the dying moments of that

Lazenby goalies star

The Richmond Hill Lazenby Pillrollers pulled off back to back shutouts against Aurora winning 1-0 and 2-0.

Each of the shutouts was split with Goalie Chris Austin recording his first shutout in the 1-0 win and Goalie Bill Todd coming right back to get one of his own.

That 2-0 win saw the local goals scored by Tony Veitch from Derrick Baker and Stephen Quigg from Baker also.

The 1-0 win saw Richmond Hill's goal scored in the last period by Baker assisted by Wayne Harris. A special mention for a fine performance by Defenceman Harris.

It was a different story than a previous game two weeks ago which Aurora won 4-1. Baker scored the lone Richmond Hill goal with Eric Mabley assisting.

The Pillrollers closed out their regular season less successfully with an 8-0 defeat at the hands of Barrie Sunday.
