

Scheduled events in southern York

Advances in medicine
Dr. John Bate, chief of obstetrics and gynaecology at York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill, will be the speaker at a meeting of York County Branch University Women's Club at 8:30 pm February 24 at Kingcrafts House, Keele Street, King City. His topic will be related to recent advances in his field. Guests are welcome. For further information call Janet Fayle, 884-3348.

Harbourfront carnival
Tin can curling, a broomball tournament, pony and hay rides, log cutting contests, a shoot the puck contest and fish pond will be among the events at the Harbourfront 75 winter carnival Saturday and Sunday on the shores of Lake Ontario between York and Bathurst Streets. Other events include a giant toboggan run. For information call 369-4951.

Majorette and drum corps dance
Richmond Hill Lions Majorette and Drum Corps is planning an evening of fun with door prizes, spot dances and buffet at its annual dance in Richmond Hill Lions Hall, Centre Street East on March 1 with music beginning at 8:30 pm. Everyone is invited. For tickets at $8 a couple call Brenda Bakonyi at 884-6512 or Rolly Formica at 884-6893.

Seven days of this . . .
International Women's Year honors the changing role of women in society with "Seven Days Of This Makes One Weak", an exhibit of pictures and artifacts of the last century, at the Gibson House, 5172 Yonge Street, behind Willowdale post office. Pen and ink sketches of gracious living in pre-Confederation days contrast with displays of churns, scrub boards, spinning wheels and innumerable tools of the trade of the pioneer housewife. There are also delicate laces and embroideries and other evidences of the skills of the women of yesteryear. The historic house and galleries are open from 9:30 am to 5 pm Monday to Saturday and noon to 5 pm Sundays. Adults 50 cents, children 25 cents.

Scout hobby show
The Rovers, Venturers, Scouts and Cubs of the York Summit Scouting District are having their annual hobby show at Bayview Secondary School, Bayview Avenue north of Markham Road in Richmond Hill from 1 to 7 pm on Saturday. Everyone is welcome.

Non-profit organizations planning programs of interest to readers in Southern York may submit items for this column to Social Editor Margaret Lade, "The Liberal", 10101 Yonge Street, Richmond Hill, 884-8177 or 881-3401. Deadline is noon on Friday.

Region backs Markham

York Regional Council will consider a motion from the Town of Markham calling for the province to amend the Election Act, setting the first Monday in October for civic elections.

The motion includes a request the province change the fiscal year-end for municipalities to October 31. December's inclement weather, which kept people home from the polls, was given as the reason for urging the change. Speaking to the resolution, Councillor Lois Hancey of Richmond Hill said she supported its intent.

However, there was more to it than just changing the date of the election. They were changing the fiscal year as well.

The matter was referred to the administration committee.

The latter will also consider a resolution from the Region of Durham calling for the government "to change the pertinent statutes to allow municipal and school elections to be held in September or October."

We'll match your BABY BONUS CHEQUE!

Yes, you could be a lucky winner and have your baby bonus cheque matched dollar for dollar. All you have to do is cash it at Kresge's, Richmond Heights Centre and fill in a coupon for the Lucky Draw. (Winner must consent to have her picture taken for advertising purposes).

January's lucky winner was Mrs. Bessie McDonald, 425 Becker Road, Richmond Hill, who won $22.08.

Read your Tax Guide. It's worth it.

Let's face it. Even though the Federal Government tries each year to make the tax form easier to understand, you probably believe filling it out is a difficult job.

But when you use the 1974 Income Tax Guide, which accompanies your tax form, you'll find it's not as difficult as you thought.

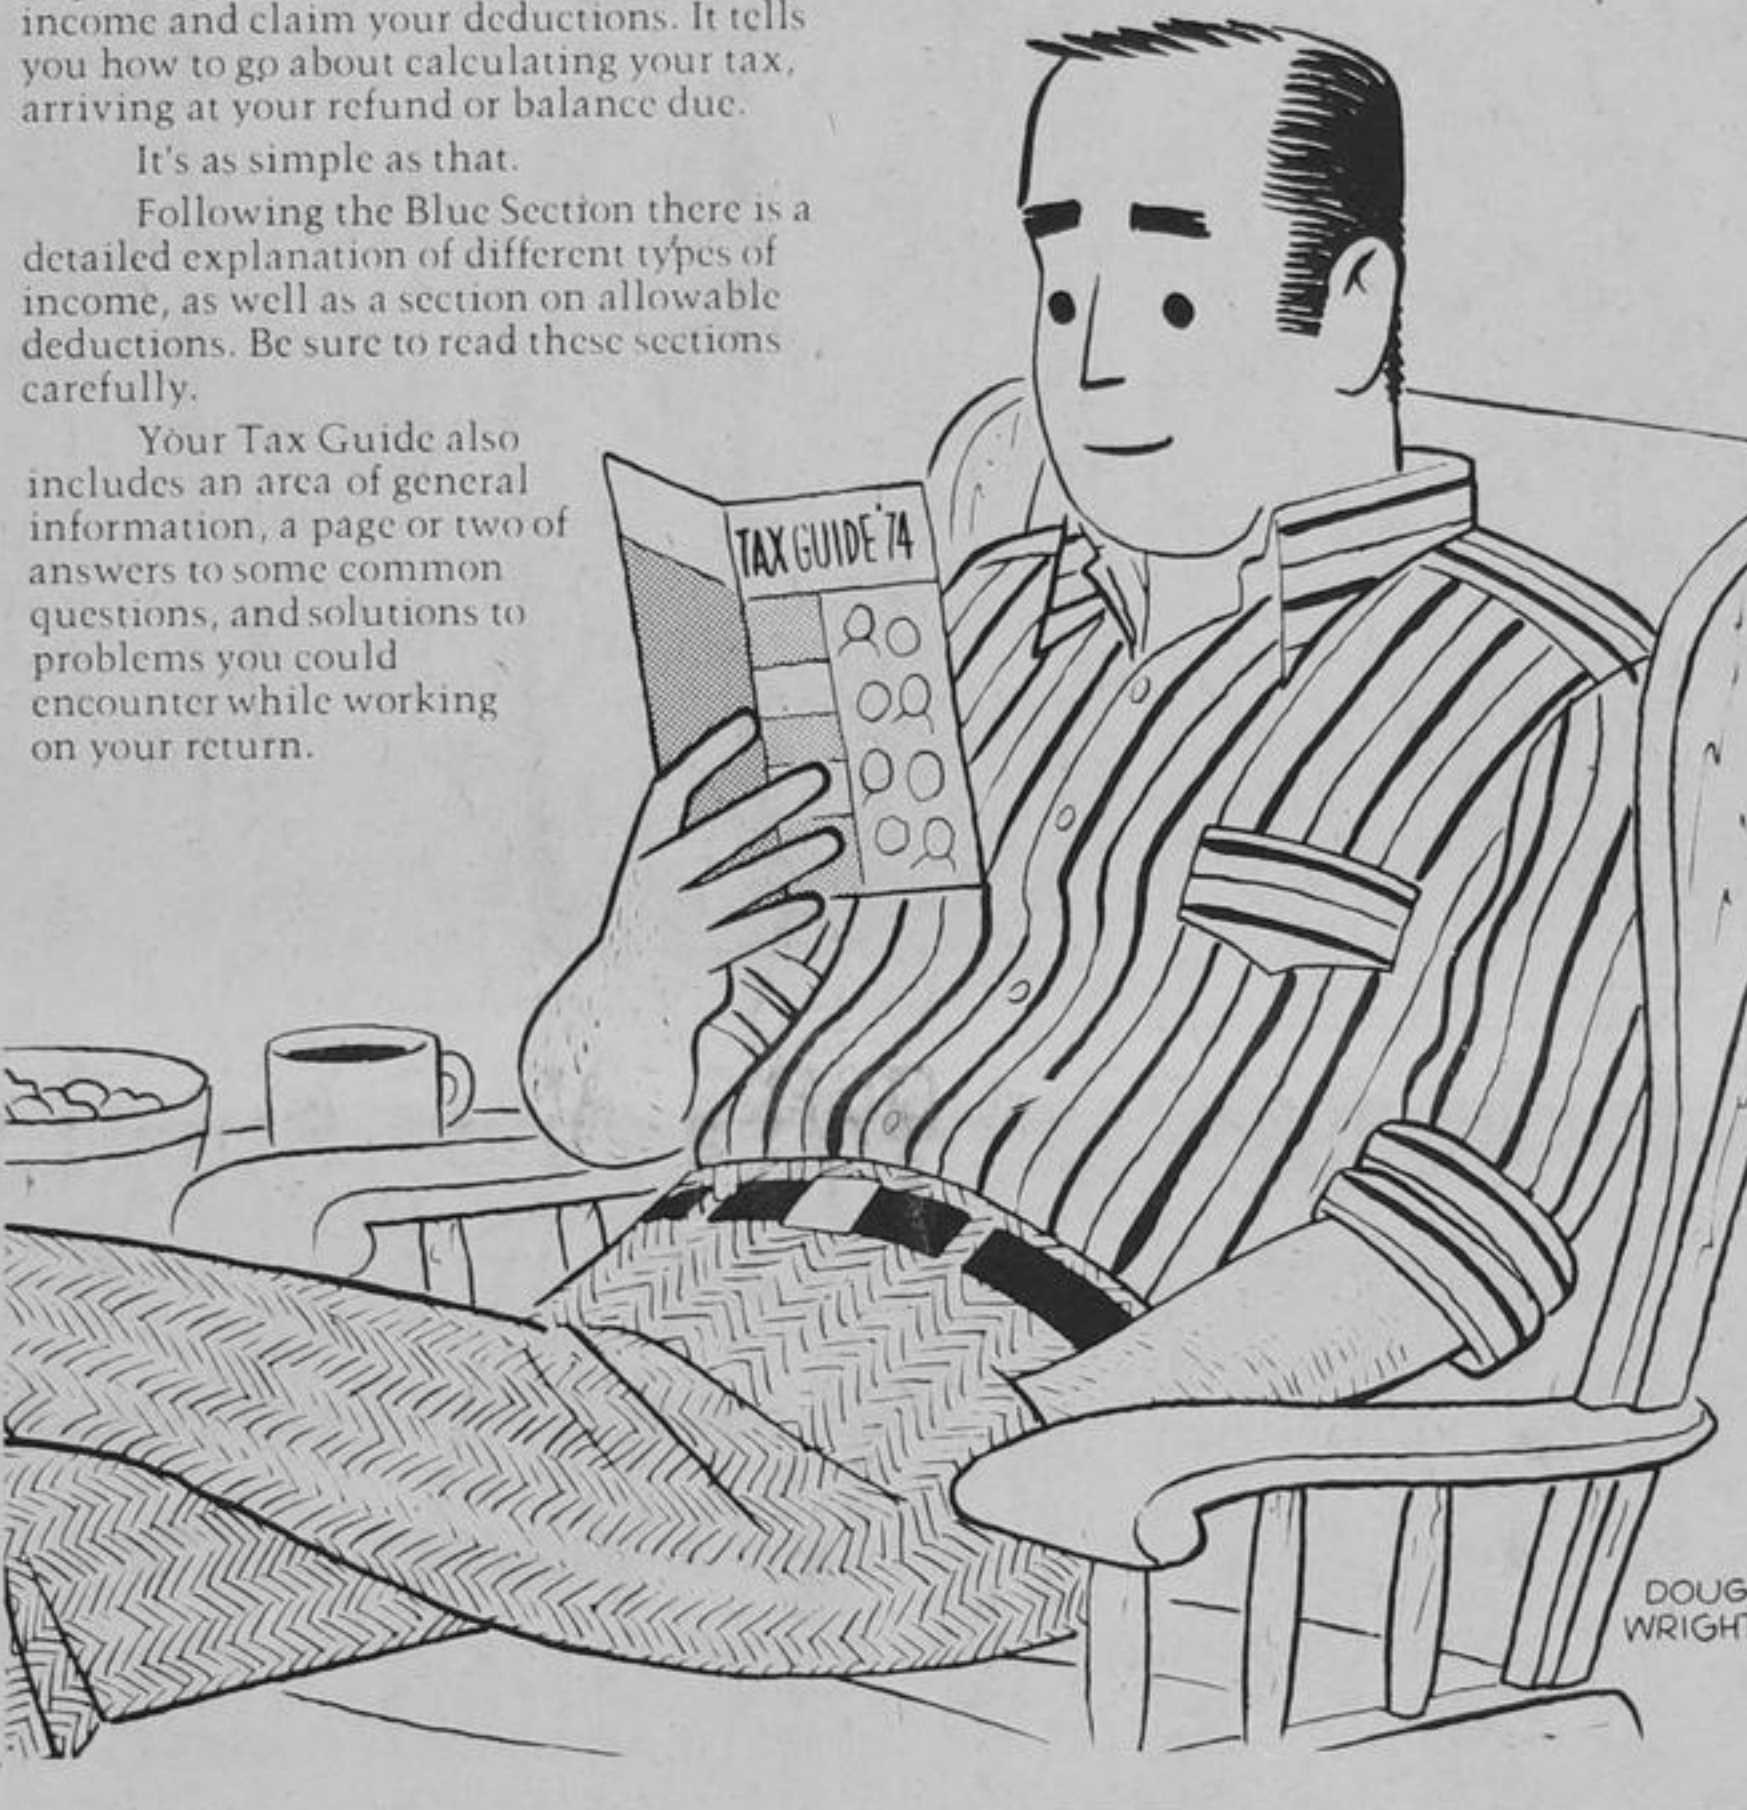

And for most of you, the Guide will be the only help you'll need to complete your return.

Read your Guide thoroughly. The easy-to-follow Blue Section at the front of the Guide takes you through the tax form step by step, showing you how to list your income and claim your deductions. It tells you how to go about calculating your tax, arriving at your refund or balance due.

It's as simple as that.

Following the Blue Section there is a detailed explanation of different types of income, as well as a section on allowable deductions. Be sure to read these sections carefully.

Your Tax Guide also includes an area of general information, a page or two of answers to some common questions, and solutions to problems you could encounter while working on your return.

We're making it easier to understand.
