Orillia ousts Legion Midgets

Richmond Hill Legion Midgets returned to the wars February 12, after reaching the semi-final in Drummondville, and tangled with Orillia in the second series of the York Simcoe playdowns to determine a winner to proceed into the all-Ontario. The Legionnaires once again collapsed in the third period. They were riding on a 2-1 lead going into that last period when Orillia countered with three unanswered goals to take the win 4-2.

There was no scoring in the first period, but at 1:37 of the second Robbie Wallingford scored on a pass from Doug Hodgson and Marc Brillinger. Orillia tied it up at 12:08. At 12:35 David Earl took passes from Mike Ham and Danny Jones and put the Legion one up. That was it for the Legion. Orillia wrapped up the series Friday 2-0 on their home ice. Legion just couldn't buy a goal and had the misfortune to run into a hot Orillia goalie plus some absolutely stupid penalties. Whether they were deserved or not matters not at this stage.

Legion's inability to move the puck out of their own end was very evident. They were also too slow in setting up plays. Orillia had them pegged and they didn't recoup until the third period. The Legionnaires were putting on tremendous pressure around the Orillia net and couldn't keep their cool, walking into a double penalty for roughing. That killed their chances.

series. An exhibition game with Oak Ridges was played February 16. The Legion took a 5-2 lead into the third period and just about "blew it" but managed to scramble away with a 5-4 win.

Sunday's game saw the Magna boys short-handed but still skated with Barrie for the first half of the game. The lone Richmond Hill goal was scored by Jim Polhamus unassisted.
