Smoking is banned at school board meetings

York County Board of Education, which has on occasion been accused of filling its meetings with hot air, did its best to clear up another kind of pollution Monday night.

With even some of the non-smokers saying aye, the board approved a motion by Trustee Keith Hargrave of Georgina Township to ban smoking at its meetings from now on.

Instead, any smokers will now have to light up in the halls, and that applies during coffee break as well.

Trustee Hargrave said smoking made the air in the room unhealthy and wasn't "conducive to helping us make decisions".

Fellow Georgina Trustee William Laird, who seconded the motion, said they had to think of the safety of everyone. Also, his Scottish blood made him "hate to see all that money go up in smoke".

Vaughan Trustee, Betty Canivet, said she had an allergy problem and it was "uncomfortable for non-smokers".

Dog shot in King

A King Township man faces a charge of cruelty to animals following an incident last week.

Frank Uterlander of 40 Keele Street, King City, told York Regional Police he had been on a service call in Concession 5 of the township February 19.

After finishing his call, he attempted to locate his dog but was unable to do so.

He then followed the tracks of the dog to a nearby house and found it lying under a tree with a bullet in its side.

Facing the charge is Herman Klemm, 36, of Concession 5.

am to 2 pm and they hope to have many of the people from the area come.

Keeping in touch

Sorry I missed last week. My Dad telephoned to say Mother was quite ill and would I come.

I telephoned a neighbor who very kindly offered to do this column for me if she could find the news.

From now on this situation could repeat regularly, leaving us with no Carrville News. As a result I would like to have one of you readers take over the job.

It is interesting, and if you walk your little one each day or have someone in Ross Doan school, you are meeting people and hearing things.

Call me if you think you would like to do it.
