

Here are scheduled events in southern York this week

Men's choir cabaret night

Toronto Men Teachers' Choir is presenting a cabaret night with singing, dancing and a buffet at North York Community Centre, 5090 Yonge Street, at 8 pm Thursday. The choir, which has performed at Expo 67 and with the Toronto Symphony meets Tuesday evenings at 7:30 in Lawrence Park Collegiate Toronto. It was founded in 1941. Now open to non-teachers, it is looking for new members. For information about the cabaret or the choir call Peter Rhead at 222-2891.

Canadian cavalcade of films

The Canadian Cavalcade of film series continues at Seneca College theatre, Minkler Auditorium, 1750 Finch Avenue East, with a showing Monday at 7:30 pm of Jean-Pierre Lefebvre's Des Dernieres Fiancailles (The Last Engagement), a tender portrait of an aging couple whose love has endured throughout their lives. On March 10 the series presents Dreamland: A History of Canadian Movies, a fascinating and often hilarious view of film production in Canada from 1895 to 1939. Admission $1. For information call 491-8877.

Reena family fun day

The Reena Foundation for the integration of the handicapped within the community is sponsoring a family fun day 1 to 6 pm Sunday at Hillcrest Mall, Yonge Street at Carrville Road, Richmond Hill. Something for the entire family — an art show and sale, movies for children, handicrafts, gourmet fare, games, door prizes.

Blood donor clinic

There will be a Red Cross blood donor clinic in the Lions Hall, 106 Centre Street East, Richmond Hill, Thursday from 2 to 4 pm and from 6 to 9 pm.

A Man For All Seasons

Seneca College breaks new theatrical ground with the first all-college production of a major play, A Man For All Seasons, to be presented at 8:30 pm March 4 to 8 in the Studio Theatre, Finch Campus, 1750 Finch Avenue

East. Two professional theatre men, Terry Durrant and Desmond Scott, will direct and star in the play, with Scott taking the leading role of Thomas Moore. Student matinees at 2 pm March 5, 6 and 7. The theatre box office is open from 10 am to 5 pm Monday to Friday. For information call 491-8877. Tickets $3 for adults, $1 for students.

Concert of music and dance

The Thornhill Kiwanis Club is sponsoring a special concert Saturday at 8:30 pm in Thornlea Secondary School, Bayview Avenue between John Street and Highway 7. Lois Smith's Toronto School of Ballet will present Les Sylphides, the Thornhill Cantabile Choir will sing and the York Bass Quintet will play. Tickets $3 for adults, $1.75 for children. Convenir is Graham Uprcraft, organist at Holy Trinity Anglican Church, Thornhill.

Fashion show, luncheon, dance

The Cancer Society's junior auxiliary is sponsoring a fashion show by Creeds at the Inn-On-The-Park on March 7. There will be a luncheon show at 1 pm and an evening show at 7:30 pm followed by dancing and buffet. Luncheon show tickets $8.50, buffet dinner dance (reserved) $20 per person. For tickets or information call Mrs. Joyce Meek, 889-1644 or Mrs. Linda Sauro, 482-6344. All proceeds to cancer research.

Swing into spring

Wedding apparel and spring fashions will be featured next week at fashion shows to be presented in the auditorium at Hillcrest Mall. There will be shows at 7:30 pm on March 5, 6 and 7 and at 2 pm on March 8. Tickets at $2.50 each include wine and cheese, door prizes, favors. Proceeds to family services. For tickets call Dorothy Price, 884-3674, Edna Beacock, 884-1804, or Phyllis Andrew, 884-3525.

Non-profit organizations planning programs of interest to readers in Southern York may submit items for this column to Social Editor Margaret Lade, "The Liberal", 10101 Yonge Street, Richmond Hill, 884-8177 or 881-3401. Deadline is noon on Friday.

Richmond Hill groom, lovely Thornhill bride

A honeymoon in Niagara Falls followed the November 23 wedding of Terry Ann Wetmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Wetmore, 11 Pearson Avenue, Thornhill, and John Ranieri, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ranieri, 365 Osiris Drive, Richmond Hill.

The double ring ceremony took place at Our Lady Queen of the World Roman Catholic Church with Father Francis Robinson officiating.

Peter Ranieri, the groom's brother, read the Epistle, and bringing up the offertory gifts were Gail and Donna Ranieri, sisters of the groom, and Leonard and Danny Wetmore, brothers of the bride. The altar was decorated with large baskets of white gladiolas and yellow mums.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride and her attendants walked down the aisle to the theme of Romeo and Juliet played by Craig Snider.

The bride's gown was of white polyester satin with 'V' neckline, full-length sleeves and cathedral train. Chantilly lace trim accented the bodice and cuffs. Her fingertip veil of chantilly lace was held by a crown of small white flowers. She wore a sterling silver cross, gift of the groom and carried a cascade of yellow roses with white baby's breath.

Her maid of honor, Theresa Langfield, wore a full-length gown of polyester coral satin with standup collar and elbow-length sleeves. Her bridesmaid, Elizabeth Hamilton, who made the bride's and attendants' gowns as well as the bouquets and corsages, wore a gown of beige chiffon with floral pattern of green and coral. Both had matching headpieces and nosegays of coral roses with baby's breath.

Best man was Paul Ranieri, brother of the groom, and Larry Wetmore, brother of the bride, was the usher. The groom and his attendants wore beige jackets, brown trousers, white shirts and brown velvet bow ties.

The reception at the Villa Nova in Concord was attended by 100 guests. The bride's mother received wearing a yellow chiffon gown and corsage of coral roses with white baby's breath.

The groom's mother was dressed in a blue silk knit gown and wore a corsage of yellow roses with white baby's breath.

The four tier wedding cake was made by the groom's mother and decorated by the food services department at Don Head Secondary School.

Colorful art show at Hill library

The cold dull month of February is brightened considerably by the display in the showcase of the Richmond Hill Public Library. Mark Cheviak, a resident of Richmond Hill has arranged a display of his art work including pen and ink sketches, oil paintings, water colours, pen on felt and colourful fabric collages.

Mr. Cheviak's work, which reflects the various cultural influences of the East, South America and the North American Eskimo and Indian will be available for viewing during the month of February, in Library hours.

A full accounting of the activities of the organization will be presented at the annual meeting in April which is open to the public.

Children with learning disabilities York Chapter inaugural meeting

The inaugural meeting of the newly formed York County Chapter of the Association For Children With Learning Disabilities took place February 17 at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Tom Leon in Thornhill. An executive was elected. Officers are president Mrs. Elizabeth Harrington of Richmond Hill, vice-president Mrs. Rosemary Underwood of Markham, treasurer Brian Cowan of Richmond Hill, and secretary Mrs. Ruth Briden, Thornhill.

Committee chairmen elected are Mrs. Joan Koichinski, membership and parent training; programs Mrs. Ann Byrne; publicity Mrs. Lynda Johnson; legislation and education, Tom Leon.

The new chapter set out its aims and purposes: — to initiate public awareness, to provide information to parents and teachers.

— to organize meetings providing educational programs, films, etc.

— to establish direct services such as summer camps, recreation and diagnostic clinics in schools. The executive will meet February 27 to set a date for a general meeting. The YCACL will then begin the task of putting the aims and objectives of the chapter into practice.

St. John's Baptist Lenten program

St. John's Baptist Church is following a special Lenten program for the weeks leading up to Easter, with a central theme and mid-week meetings.

Rev. Dana Lamb has begun a series of sermons on Our Peerless Life. Sunday there was also an evening of special music under direction of Ed Golem. Mrs. Lona Richardson was at the organ and Mrs. Betty Harris at the piano.

Violinist was Thomas Wrensch, an exchange student from Germany. Vocal music was provided by Steve and Terry Smith, by the Neun sisters with two guitars, and by Paul Gonzo who accompanied himself on his guitar. The congregation also enjoyed their own contribution of singing hymns new and old.

The midweek meetings are being held in members' homes and have been well attended: the first at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Tatum and the second at Mr. and Mrs. Audley Kirchen's.

Saturday morning the teachers and officers of the church school served breakfast for church families — quality and quantity were great. Rev. Fred Poulton, formerly with Donway Baptist, gave a talk relevant to the occasion and the season. His theme was "What can I do about it?"

Fathers' day fun at Top O' the Hill

Parents' night at Top O' The Hill Nursery School involved everyone in some lively discussion about problems with children.

The speaker, Lou Macdonald, gave a lot of helpful hints on topics ranging from thumb-sucking to training children as individuals. Audience participation made it a very stimulating evening for everyone.

It was fathers' day February 1 at Top O' The Hill, (which has its home in St. Mary's Anglican Wrixon Hall) — no mothers allowed.

Teachers Marg Blackburn, Eileen Trumphour, Judy Hart, Dorothy Baker, and supervisor Christiane Fritzsche were on hand to serve doughnuts and supervise the activities.

Seniors at the school are skating each Thursday morning until the spring break, and then anticipate visits to a maple sugar bush, fire hall and pony farm.

Anyone interested in information regarding registration for next year is invited to contact Mrs. Fritzsche at 884-7012 mornings, or the registrar, Mrs. Ball, at 884-6363.
