Guide banquet The Mother and Daughter Banquet of the 3rd and 9th Thornhill South Brownies and the 4th Thornhill South Guides was held March 6 at the Thornhill United Church. The banquet featured an international theme with the Brownie mothers providing the international casseroles and the Guide mothers providing the desserts. After dinner, the program began with the formation of ring. The colors were presented and O' Canada Glenys Babcock welcomed the mothers and Deputy

the Horseshoe and Brownie

District Commissioner Mrs. Avril Davies. Glenys stated what Thinking Day represented the birthday of Lord and Lady Baden-Powell - and then stated what each unit was presenting: 3rd Thornhill South -Israel; 9th Thornhill South - Japan; 4th Thornhill

South Guides - Ireland. Michelle Feltham, Annette O'Byrne, Dawn O'Grady, Peggy Thompson BE PREPARED

then spoke on the four world centres.

Flew to Guides These girls from the 9th Thornhill South and Leigh Channing from the 3rd Thornhill South flew to Guides. At the "gateway" to Guides, the Brownies were met by Lieutenant Mrs. Catherine Ross.

While the Brownies were travelling through the passageway and "bush" the Guide Law and Promise were said.

Lieutenant Mrs. Marie O'Grady met the girls at the end of the passage and introduced them to Guide Captain Mrs. Mary Trent and Deputy District Commissioner Mrs. Avril Davies.

Brown Owls, Mrs. Stella O'Byrne and Mrs. Charlotte Cohen then enrolled their Tweenies.

Following the enrolment, Mrs. Davies described the aims and goals in Guiding and the work involved in earning a Canada Cord.

Canada Cords She then presented the Canada Cord to two worthy and hardworking girls -Gelhan Armstrong and Glenys Babcock.

The girls received their Canada Cord pin on March

The Guiders of the 3rd and Thornhill South Brownies and the 4th Thornhill South Guides extend their appreciation to Mrs. Elizabeth Houghton, Mrs. Mildred Prosen and Mrs. Eileen Peck for all the work they did to make this evening a great success.
