

Funeral at Buttonville United for former Buttonville farmer Jack Gough

The Buttonville community was saddened last week to learn of the passing of John (Jack) Gough of Jonquil Crescent, Markham, April 16, at Scarboro Centenary Hospital.

The Goughs farmed for many years on Don Mills Road, north of Steeles Avenue, where Peters' vegetable market now stands.

The property was sold about 20 years ago when the family moved to Markham.

Mr. Gough has been a valued member of Brown's Corners United Church a tenor soloist who has brought much pleasure.

He had been ill for some time, and succumbed to a heart condition and pneumonia.

Friends were received at the Ogden Funeral Home, Main Street, Unionville.

Rev. Allen Hallett conducted funeral and committal services at Brown's Corners United Church Friday afternoon at 3 pm.

Surviving are his wife Lottie, son Ted of Minden (former Markham fire chief), daughters Mary (Mrs. Rae Grant of Stouffville) and Patricia at home.

The community extends sincere sympathy.

Parents, children in Tom Sawyer production

Buttonville children and their parents have been happily involved in a production of "Tom Sawyer" which was presented by pupils of Unionville Public School, Main Street, Unionville, April 9 and 10.

In the Wednesday production Kim Webster was "Becky", Debbie Stevenson (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stevenson) was "Aunt Polly", Raymond Gohn, grandson of the Irving Gohns was "Sid", Stephanie Murgasky was "Mary". Other cast members included Glen Donaldson, Peggie Brumwell, Susan Stewart, Jane Botham, Cathy Wood, Diane Brumwell.

Sharon Reesor, Trudy Craigie and Leslie Baker (Ross and Lois' daughter) were in the chorus, and Jody Brown (Murray and Betty Patterson Brown's eldest son) was the ticket taker Wednesday, and Rev. Walters at the Thursday performance.

Also in the Thursday cast were Bob and Janet Cunningham's daughter Donna (Aunt Polly), Ken Stephenson (Ken and Connie's son) as "Joe"; Bill and Helen Clark's daughter Kay as "Mary", and Richard and Carol Carr's daughter Laurie as "Amy." Mrs. Donald Gohn and Mrs. Bill Clark assisted with the presentation, and Mrs. Donald Reesor was pianist and accompanist.

Brown's Corners UCW members entertained members from their sister organization at Eastminster United Church (formerly

133rd anniversary at Brown's Corners United

Brown's Corners United Church congregation is 133 years old this year, and will also celebrate its eighth year as a one-point charge.

There will be two special services May 4 to celebrate the anniversary.

At 11 am, Rev. Don Kranz of Bethesda Lutheran Church, Unionville, will be guest speaker.

And at 7:30 pm Rev. Douglas Smith, formerly of Dominion Douglas Church, Westmount, Quebec, and now of the staff of St. Andrew's United Church, Markham, will be the guest.

There will be special music by both junior and senior choirs, with Mrs. Marguerite Jones and Mrs. Don Reesor directing, and Miss Regina Allen as pianist.

It is also expected the Harriet MacGregor Memorial organ will be installed and in operation.

Happy Timers and the senior Brown's Corners group prepared a buffet luncheon convened by Miss Mary Rodick, Mrs. Gordon Spring and Mrs. Milton Sherman.

Afterward there was an interesting program, with Miss Margaret Rigsby of Markham as soloist accompanied by Mrs. Lois Anderson, a devotional conducted by Mrs. Stewart Rumble of Headford, and guest speaker Mrs. Jean Nauta of Lemonville. Mrs. Walter Craig chaired the meeting, and Mrs. Don Reesor was pianist.

Neighbourhood notes

April 3-4-5, 1975, will surely go down in local history as the time of the big blizzard. Most businesses and social events suffered because of blocked driveways, roads, and nil visibility.

At the Leaf household Sachet, the family cat, had the place to herself for five days when her mistress was snowbound in Toronto.

Kind friends rescued her from starvation, but she was very put out, and didn't speak to the family for a whole day after their return.

Rae and Betty Donaldson and their family, John, Glen and Linda, have returned from a trip to Florida's Disney World, full of enthusiasm about their holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Champion came home from their winter break in the south in time to dig themselves out after the storm.

Friends were sorry to learn of Gordon Brown's snowmobile accident Friday, April 4th. Gordon is in Scarborough Centenary Hospital with a broken leg and chest injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson are home after a winter in Florida. Unfortunately Mrs. Stephenson has been quite ill.
