St. Mary's Fellowship Club visits pediatrics ward

Little John Prosser, a pediatrics patient at York Central Hospital, appears quite unimpressed by the attention lavished upon him by Nurse Sheila McGaffney and Mrs. Edna Harding, president of the Fellowship club of St. Mary's Anglican Church. Approximately 25 members of the group, which meets on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month at Wrixon Hall, toured the pediatrics ward of the hospital. They presented a $50 cheque to Nurse McGaffney for the purchase of something suitable for the young patients.

Seniors applaud Tri-City Slickers

The musical evening held at the club rooms on Wednesday last was attended by approximately 100 Senior Citizens. All enjoyed the evening immensely.

The barbershoppers quartet, known as the Tri-City Slickers, wore their most colorful costumes and sang their hearts out in old and new songs.

Refreshments were served by Anna Holz and her helpers. Mildred Clubine was complimented for arranging such a fine event.

The program for Senior Citizens' Week, June 15-21, will be discussed further at the next general meeting May 14.

Don Hick has a full busload for the Shaw Festival's "Pygmalion" at Niagara-on-the-Lake. Reservations for a second bus will be taken up to May 3.

Do not delay speaking to Don if you wish to attend this play. Buses will leave from the club rooms May 17 at 1:30 pm.

We are sorry to report that our Vice-President George Taylor has undergone surgery at Toronto General Hospital, and is at present in an iron lung.

Cards for him should be addressed to 7 R.C.U., Toronto General Hospital, 101 College Street.

Mrs. Taylor is also a hospital patient at York Central.

Senior Citizens' Bowling League finished their 1974-75 season at ABC Lanes on Friday, The Team Cup was won by Jack Sheahan's team.

High single scores for women were: Muriel Steven 235, Ada Geen 226, Ethel Cruikshank 209; for men: Bob Steven 235, Mike Murphy 228, Charlie Attridge 221.

The four bowling cups will be presented to the winners at the banquet at Richmond Hill United Church on May 6.

York Potters Guild finds a new home

A real treat is in store for York Potters' Guild May 7 when Gordon Barnes, well known director of the Visual Arts Centre at Seneca's King Campus, will demonstrate his skill with clay and throwing on the wheel.

The meeting, which is open to all members and interested guests begins at 8 pm at the Aurora studio, 107 Yonge Street South.

The guild is progressing every day and members are busily preparing for the sale and exhibition to be held May 24 at the studio.

Unfortunately, the guild was unable to raise the funds required for the temporary accommodation offered by the Town of Richmond Hill.

The location, the basement of the parks and recreation building on Mill Street, was ideal and the rooms just right, but the

May 9, 10, 11

All elementary and secondary school students interested in exhibiting their rabbits, cavies, pigeons or poultry in the junior show classes at the Richmond Hill Spring Fair are invited to call Ray Watford at 884-1679.

Billed as Ontario's largest spring fair, the 126th annual Spring Fair will be held at the town park on May 9, 10 and 11.

Entries are coming in for all classes, but ladies and girls may still arrange for needlecraft entries by calling Carol Waller at 884-2500.

In domestic science categories for baking, cakes, pies, breads and junior baking, Wendy Rutan at 884-2507 will be pleased to hear from any aspiring contestants.

In school competitions, call Stella Lekx at 832-8777. Any of these committee members will be pleased to answer questions or arrange entries for the various classes.

St. Clement's grads hold party

Mrs. Shirlene Austerberry and her escort, Tim Wilson, were co-hosts for a dinner party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Austerberry, Crosby Avenue, Friday evening for the graduating class of St. Clement's School, Toronto.

Twenty-one fellow graduates of Shirlene accompanied by their escorts were present as were Principal Hazel Perkin, Vice-Principal June Jarvis, Mr. Jarvis, teacher Audrey Medwell and Mr. Medwell. Following the dinner, the party attended the graduates' dance, held at Tartu College, Toronto.

Talk about the strange twists of Fate! Edward Luka attended a party recently given by the choir of St. Cyprian's Anglican and Hillcrest United Churches, Willowdale and won the draw prize.

The prize? Two tickets to York Philharmonic Choir's presentation of Mendelssohn's "Elijah" at Minkler Auditorium, Seneca College, Saturday evening, conducted by Edward Luka.

Incidentally the Richmond Hill performance is almost sold out, but tickets are still available for Seneca's presentation from Mrs. Moira Daubert at 884-5188.

Richmond Hill Historical Society, which has adopted Heritage-Richmond Hill as an alternate name, entertained Mayor David Schiller, members of council, members of the parks and recreation department and committee, and Works Commissioner Bernard Toporowski Monday evening at the Rowland Burr house on Carrville Road.

The visitors were taken on a tour of the house, shown what has already been accomplished in refurbishing it and a display of the types of craftwork proposed for the home to which Rowland Burr took his bride in 1819.

Coffee and dessert were served before members of council left for their regular council meeting.

St. Gabriel's Anglican Church will hold an auction sale May 31 at 10 am, and Convenor Don Snider is looking for contributions of good saleable articles of all kinds.

Remember the auction when doing your spring cleaning and call Don at 884-5200 for further information.

Plan now to attend the regular Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic, to be held Thursday, May 22, from 2-4, and 6-9 pm, at Richmond Hill Lions Hall, Centre Street East. Further information may be obtained by calling Marion Hohener at 889-6653.

Old and new residents of the Hill are interested in what is going on in the community — service clubs, church groups, social happenings. Keep them informed through "It's Happening In The Hill".

Items for inclusion in the current issue of "The Liberal" should reach Social Editor Margaret Lade, 10101 Yonge Street, Box 390 Richmond Hill, by 10 am on MONDAY.

Mrs. Phyllis Applegath of Gormley, well known dealer and connoisseur of antiques will once again be present at Richmond Hill and District Family Y's Treasure and Trivia Sale and Luncheon next Wednesday at the Lions Hall, Centre Street East.

beBe. v Wight, who will convene the antiques booth, has assembled a group of knowledgeable helpers to man this popular and busy section of the sale, which runs from 10 am to 3 pm.

Members of Richmond Lodge 23, accompanied by their wives, travelled by bus to Strongsville, Ohio last weekend on their biennial visit to Flower Lodge of that city.

On their arrival at the Holiday Inn on Saturday, Worshipful Master Harry Thomson and Richmond Lodge members met at the Masonic Hall with their lodge brothers of Strongsville. The distaff members were free to shop or relax in the pool all afternoon.

A dinner and dance were held in the evening, and on Sunday the host lodge entertained the visitors at a pancake breakfast prior to their departure.

Next year the Americans will visit Richmond Lodge, and plans are already afoot to make the visit a memorable one.

The Lutheran Church Women of St. Paul's, Bayview Avenue held their monthly meeting April 16 with President Jean Evensen in the chair.

A brief business meeting was followed by devotions led by Lillian Chepelski. Waterloo Lutheran Seminary's women's auxiliary, its works and involvement, was the subject of an interesting film, commented by Sylvia Limpert.

A mother and daughter dessert hour has been planned for May 23, 6:30 pm at the church. The evening concluded with refreshments served by Ida Lindgrin and Lilo Lindemann.

Listeners to John Bradshaw's Saturday morning garden show on CFRB Radio have been pleased to hear Mrs. Flavia Redelmeier, well known local horticulturist, appear as a guest several times recently.

The youth group of St. Mary's Anglican Church will play host to a musical evening of song and fellowship presented by St. Matthew's United Church Hi-C, Sunday May 4 at 7:30 pm.

The Hi-C's is an interdenominational group of about 60 young people who play and sing religious and contemporary music, and stress audience participation.

Accompanied by their 16 instrumentalists, they recently sang before Very Reverend Wilbur Howard, moderator of the United Church, at King City.

Richmond Hill Horticultural Society is fortunate in having as one of its members, Bob Keith "The Ontario Gardener", who has many listeners for his program on CBL Radio Saturday and Sunday mornings.

Musicale at RHUC

Over 200 people attended the recent Spring Concert presented by York Regional Symphony Orchestra and the choir of St. Anne's Anglican Church at Richmond Hill United Church. Rossini's "Barber of Seville" was acclaimed as one of the orchestra's outstanding performances of the season. The choir's rendition of Mozart's "Requiem" was the highlight of the evening.

Clifford Poole the noted pianist, is conductor of both orchestra and choir, and under his leadership an evening of beautiful instrumental and vocal music was presented to the audience.

The final symphony concert of the season will be at Sutton High School on Friday, Call 833-5541 or 884-1083 for information.

and a longer season to mature than the old reliables — beans, carrots and beets.

Many of the vegetables too have their special pests, but the speaker illustrated with excellent pictures the various methods of combating them.

It was the kind of presentation designed to entice members to plant numerous vegetables this year, bearing in mind high prices and the satisfaction of going out into the garden, picking them, and enjoying their fresh delights.

Vegetables such as egg plant and Brussels sprouts may require more attention
