

Girl Guide Day at CNE is coming August 15

Girl Guides of Canada York South Division By Jean Peachman

Congratulations to Maryanne Ball and Lynn Clouston for winning the Girl Guide travel-exchange draw in the Guiding on the Move program.

The girls will be part of the exchange travel planned for this summer which will see Rangers and Guides going across Canada.

Maryanne is heading for the Yukon and Lynn will go to Prince Edward Island. The girls are from the 1st Thornhill Ranger Company.

We wish them a wonderful summer and look forward to hearing of their adventures on their return.

Guide Day at CNE
Remember to mark your calendar for August 15 to visit the CNE on Girl Guide Day.

All day, programs have been arranged to which the girls, their families and friends as well as the general public are invited.

Any Brownie, Guide, Ranger, Cadet or Guider in uniform will be admitted to the exhibition free of charge.

Win Athlete badges
Brown Owl Jackie Neun reports the 1st Concord Pack visited her group recently for a meeting of songs and singing games. Each Brownie made and took home a bird feeder as well.

Recently the whole pack tried for the athlete badge and the following passed: Dawn Crandell, Judith Grant, Camille Krupa, Andrea Tuck, Shauna Staley, Ann Haslett, Heather Nixon, Mia Pocente, June Freisen, Nancy Downer, Debbie Bunting, Rosemary Reid.

Judith Grant and Nancy Downer flew up from a farmyard through the gate to the city of the 2nd Thornhill Guide Company.

We understand the headworker badge has been started by the pack, and a few of the older girls are working on their observer badge.

In Richmond Hill
The 12th and 15th Richmond Hill Brownie Packs have now been combined. They visited the 9th Richmond Hill Pack April 22 as part of their Guiding on the Move program.

At the meeting Lori McLean received her Golden Hand and Nancy Nikolaus, Kathleen Fuly and Sandra Buskumalen received their Golden Hand later in April.

In February Lydia Landalt, Mary Feely, Sharon Gayeley and Nicole Fisher were enrolled and Lisa Maxwell and Cheryl Rowe enrolled in April.

The girls have been busy working on their interest badges with the following excellent results: Nancy Nikolaus, craft; Regina Castelletti, book lover, thrift, writer, neighbor, craft; Sandra Buskumalen, toy maker, housekeeper; Lydia Landalt, writer, skater; Sharon Gayeley, book lover, collector; Maureen Flood, writer, skater, book lover; Melissa Oswald, skater, writer; Nicole Fisher, book lover; Denise Magill, toy maker; Sharon Cochrane, collector, craft; Kathleen Feely, toy maker.

Regina Castelletti received her Golden Hand in February and Golden Bars have been earned by Suzanne Verkuyl, Maureen Flood, Denise Magill and Sharon Cochrane.

Brown Owl Patricia Cochrane and the Brownies wish to welcome the two mothers, Mrs. Ceballo and Mrs. Corbisley who are helping out.

They are filling a vital need and the pack could not function without them.

Has Canada Cord
The 3rd Richmond Hill Coureurs des Bois tell us Louise Griffin has completed her Canada Cord.

Plans for the trip to the Cabana in Mexico are now in the final stages.

The Rangers plan to attend the 2nd Peterborough Guide and Ranger Camporee in June. Catering is the girls' specialty and they will cater for any occasion to raise money especially for the trip.

10th Hill Guides
Tenth Richmond Hill Guides welcomed a new Guide Tammy Ferrando who was enrolled April 10.

Recently Kelly Loree received her little house emblem and Wendy Bell, her hostess badge.

On March 27, the company enjoyed an all day outing to the Ontario Science Centre with 13 girls, Captain Peggy Thomas and Lieutenant Kay McNamara making the trip. Reports are that they had a great time.

17th Hill Guides
An overnight winter camp in tents was enjoyed by 12 Guides and three Leaders of the 7th Richmond Hill Guides March 15-16. During that month, 11 Guides took a home nurse course with Mrs. Hall.

The company is presently engaged in a St. John's Ambulance First Aid Course.

The weekend of April 26-27 saw a keen group of Guides and leaders hiking the Bruce Trail with an overnight camp.
