

41-year Brown's Corners United treasurer honoured

Walter Craig, who retired as treasurer of Brown's Corners United Church earlier this year after 41 years of service, was honored with his wife Beatrice at a fellowship hour following the evening service celebrating the 133rd anniversary of the church May 4.

Norman Reid, former clerk of session and an associate through the years, assisted by Alan Carr, secretary of Stewards, presented the couple with a framed plaque, picturing the old and new churches, and a pair of lounge garden chairs. Mrs. Craig also received flowers, presented by Mrs. Norman Reid, treasurer of UCW.

In his presentation address, Mr. Reid described Mr. Craig as one who served the church "with sincere dedication and love. There has never been a deficit since Mr. Craig took over the financial reins," said Mr. Reid.
