Maple girl enjoys citizenship adventure

Carol Fleming of Goodman Crescent and a grade 11 student at Langstaff Secondary School was the fortunate young lady chosen by the Vaughan Rotary Club to represent the Town of Vaughan in their Adventure in Citizenship. Two hundred and seventy six students from all across Canada met in Ottawa May 11 to 15 and were billeted in the homes of Ottawa Rotarians. Carol was chosen on the basis of academic achievement, particularly in history. The students toured Ottawa and the Houses of Commons. To commemorate the 25th anniversary of the Adventures in Citizenship they were permitted to take photos in the House of Commons and the Senate which is usually not allowed. The young people had a fine time; attended a formal evening at the Chateau Laurier, met John Diefenbaker and were presented with their citizenship papers at a ceremony at which Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau and Hon. Barney Danson, MP York North, were present. They also met Governor General and Mrs. Jules Legere. Carol was delighted she was chosen to represent the Town of Vaughan. It was a thrilling adventure for her.

Bailey Variety Show gets standing ovation

George Bailey's Variety Show presented by the Grade 8 students May 21 and 22 was a lively fast moving production, with skits, monologues, music, singing and dancing. Much of the dialogue and many of the ideas were those of the students, polished with practice and the friendly guidance of their teachers.

Each student had a job to do, be it on stage, or behind the scenes in some other capacity; and each one put their all into the job at hand.

The costumes and makeup were well done and provided added humor in many cases. There were good crowds on both nights.

Many of those who attended the first night enjoyed the show so much, they came back for seconds and there was a standing ovation at the conclusion on both evenings.

The students were pleased by the crowd reaction, and also with the pride with which teachers Kay Heffron, Ed Murphy and Morris Jacobs showed in the outcome of the show. The three teachers were presented with gifts by the students after the Thursday show.

Along with her gift Mrs. Heffron received a bouquet of roses. The gifts were in appreciation of their coaching, advice and plain hard work.

It was a well done production with lots of laughs.

Fun Day

No matter what a fellow does to enhance his appearance, some people aren't impressed. That seems to be North York clown Harold Cares' problem with two-year-old Santina Broccoli of Dersingham Crescent, Thornhill. Both were at German Mills Co-op Nursery fun day Saturday.

Bailey Ottawa trip tomorrow

Bon voyage to George Bailey Grade 8 students. They've worked hard on fund raising for their Ottawa trip. Plans are, to leave the school at 7:30 a.m. tomorrow and return Saturday at approximately 8 p.m.

Friday the George Bailey Grade 6 and 7 students will have a boat tour of Harborfront, with a stop at Centre Island for lunch and games.

Attend youth conference

Reverend George French, Minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Maple, described the long weekend of May 16 to 19 spent at the Synod Presbyterian Youth Conference as a "fantastically inspirational weekend".

He and 16 young people from Maple attended the conference held at Camp Glenmohr, near Beaverton and became part of a group of 130. Reverend French was the speaker at the conference.

Presbyterian special events

Next Friday evening (May 30), the West Toronto Presbytery will hold a Youth Centennial Rally at Humber Heights Presbyterian Church at 7:30 pm.

At 11:15 a.m. on the same day, there will be the dedication of an organ at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church on Pine Valley Drive. The organ is in memory of the late Alex Bishop of Jackson Street.

Also on June 1 the Presbyterian Church School Centennial Rally will take place in Centennial Park, Toronto at 2 p.m.

The Moderator of the Presbyterian Church, Reverend Dr. Hugh Davidson, will be the speaker at the rally which will feature Scottish dancing, Hungarian church singing, Ukrainian folk music and the Korean Ladies Choir. A group of approximately 40 plan to attend from St. Andrew's in Maple.

Valerie's Maple notes

The Maple Lions have had second thoughts and have cancelled the antique show scheduled for June 8 at the Community Centre.

If you've lost a very charming male lemon and white cocker spaniel, call 832-1287. He has obviously been a member of a family for some time, and has been at his present location since May 17.

Now that the warmer weather has at last arrived, it's nice to see everyone out, gardening and fixing up. It's also pleasant to have that extra cup of coffee outside and hear the bells from St. Andrew's each evening at 7 p.m.

The carillon of bells was a gift from Lord Beaverbrook in 1964. His birthplace was Maple, where his father, Reverend William Aitken, was minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church from 1865 to 1880.
