

Legion zone auxiliaries rally

Members of the ladies' auxiliary to Branch 375, Royal Canadian Legion, Richmond Hill, were hostesses for the annual 10-auxiliary Zone E2 rally Saturday.

The day started at 2 p.m. with a parade under direction of parade marshal Mel Collier.

Members of the official party were Ontario Provincial Command honorary treasurer Evelyn Carroll of Goderich, 3rd vice-president Gloria Sanford of Richmond Hill, zone commander Betty Gordon of Newmarket and Branch 375 ladies' auxiliary president Mary Robson of Richmond Hill.

Leaders attend
Following were branch zone commander Ralph Newell of Woodbridge and past zone commander Bert McGregor of Aurora, branch and auxiliary presidents from Sutton West, Stouffville, Aurora, Bradford, Woodbridge, Newmarket, Bolton, North Gwillimbury, Le Froy, Belle Ewart and Richmond Hill, accompanied by the Richmond Hill pipe band and color party, together with the colors of all auxiliaries in Zone E2.

A drum head service took place outside the legion hall, the Remembrance wreath was placed by Evelyn Carroll, and the service conducted by legion Padre Rev. Bernard Barrett.

The business portion of the rally opened in the legion hall with zone commander Betty Gordon and the 10 auxiliaries presenting their annual reports.

Congratulates zone
In her excellent address, provincial officer Carroll congratulated Zone E2 on their efforts during 1974, noting a total of $125,000 was raised, an indication of the hard work done by the 800 members in the zone. A dinner followed the rally, and the members of Branch 375 ladies auxiliary who presented their current show, "The Happy Wanderers", received a standing ovation. The dance which ended the evening was well attended.

The auxiliary extended thanks to the pipe band and color party, the Fuddle Duddle ball team and all branch members for their 100 percent support, saying without their help the day would not have been the great success it was.

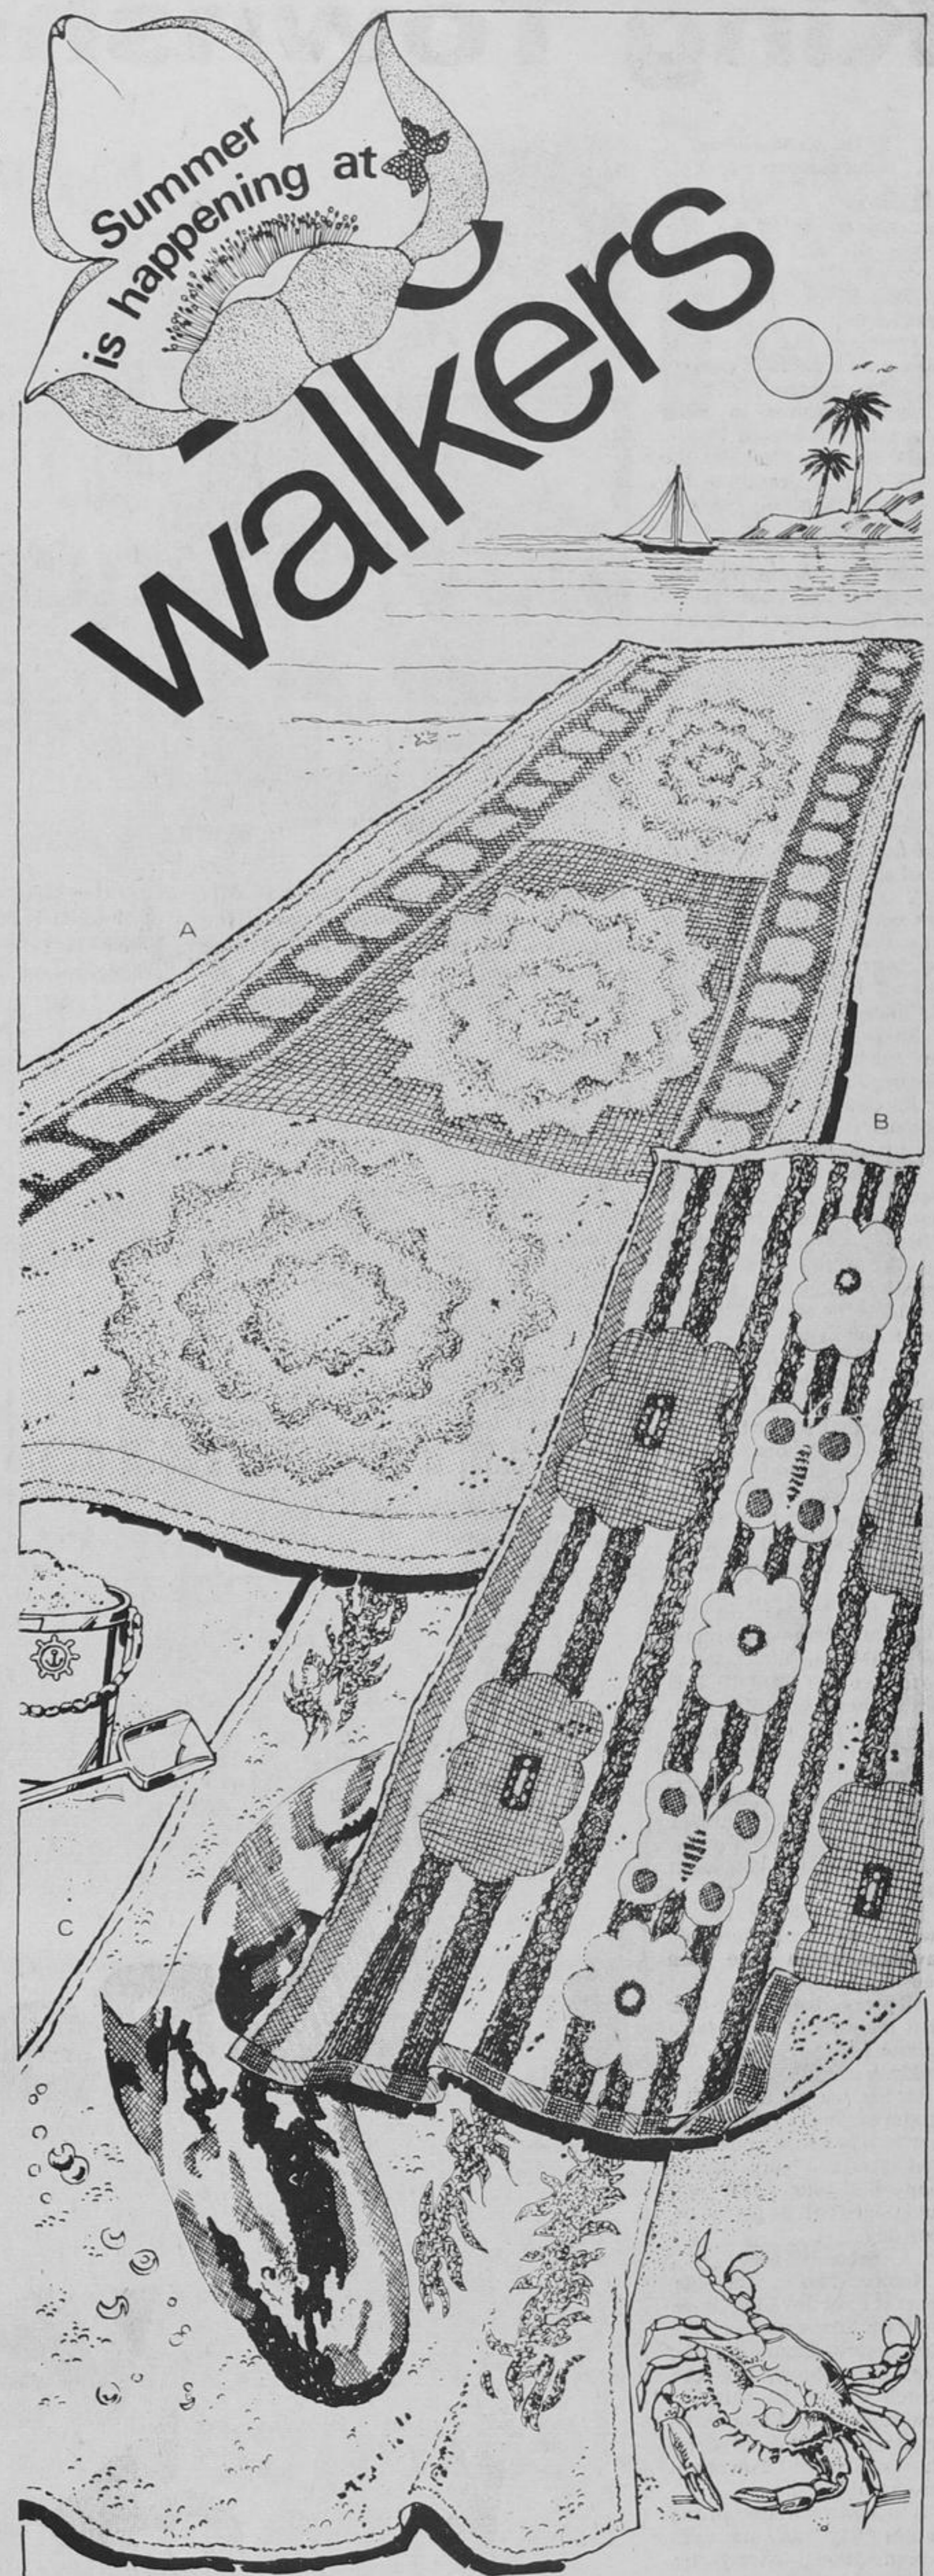

A parade from Enford Road to the Richmond Hill Legion Hall on Ohio Road preceded the annual rally of Royal Canadian Legion Zone E2 ladies' auxiliaries on Saturday. Ontario provincial command's honorary treasurer Evelyn Carroll of Goderich is pictured at the head of the parade which included color parties from the zone's 10 auxiliaries, members of the local Branch 375, its auxiliary, color party and pipe band.
