

Richvale YCHA and candidate Stong hold garden parties

Correspondent Mary Watts 889-5787

During the two days of their Fabulous Fifties sidewalk sale last week, the Hillcrest Business Association decided to contribute to the local hospital's fund raising drive by donating merchandise articles to be auctioned off to the public in the mall itself.

This and the exceptionally hot weather attracted many to the air conditioned shopping centre. Hillcrest Mall will be celebrating its first anniversary little more than a month from now. Jail Farm issue

Residents and many others from York Centre riding who had assisted Alf Stong in his campaign for the Liberal nomination recently, I was invited to the July 25 garden party at the home of the candidate and his wife Ray at 157 Trayborn Drive, to celebrate his overwhelming victory.

A most delightful evening it was — blue skies, live background music provided on guitar and fiddle by two guests and lots of people enjoying Kentucky fired chicken, good wine and chatter.

I had the opportunity of

asking Alf, on behalf of concerned residents of South Richmond Hill, what was the Liberal party's stand on the future of the jail farm. He expressed the hope a good portion of it would become a part of the green Parkway Belt planned for the 407 strip.

He said the Liberals did not favor having an industrial park and/or housing development in that entire area, when there were many other locations in Richmond Hill, such as Elgin Mills, Bayview and Yonge which are already zoned commercial or residential.

Please contact Alf if you have concerns for the well-being of your area and need his input at Queen's Park as a member of a Liberal government.

Hospital auxiliary

Another garden party took place Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elsie Baster on Maryvale Crescent.

Blessed with sunshine, many residents turned out to the strawberry tea sponsored by the Richvale branch of the York Central Hospital Auxiliary. Baked goodies were donated and sold by members of the local branch.

By coincidence, Mrs. Anne Irvine, Westwood Lane, sold the two winning tickets on the draw and both lucky winners came from the tiny village of Priceville, near Flesherton.

The beautiful hand-made quilt, "Friendship Plum", in turquoise on white, went to Mrs. E. Clysdale and the second prize was won by Mrs. Ian McLeod.

School is out

Many of you are headed for the cottage or camping. If you are home, be sure to get the children registered in the playground activity groups arranged by the town's recreation department.

These will be held from 9 to 3 pm daily starting July 7 at the Charles Howitt and Ross Doan Public Schools.

If you would like a full day's program for your child contact the Family 'Y' and find out about their day camp in the Mill Pond area.

Don't forget we have Pearson Park in South

Richvale and in Hillcrest Village there are Penwick and Wood parks, all with playground equipment. You can walk to any of them.

School bulletin

Congratulations to the newly elected members of the student council at Langstaff Secondary School for the school year starting in September.

They are President Peter Watts, Vice-President Homer Ramdeen, Secretary Rena Cerone, Treasurer Rob Veitch, Boys Athletic Director John Bordignon, Girls Athletic Director Marilyn Payne.

For any future community events you wish to have the local high school students to participate in, please bring it to the attention of the above executive.

Farmers turning to corn

Correspondent Jean Leaf 294-5290

Summer, and school is out. The highways are busy, even though the price of gas has risen. Farmers are haying, and the corn is growing high.

buttonville

Most farmers in this area have turned to corn farming in a big way. The only problem with such crop concentration is that Atrazine, which is sprayed on corn lands to keep down weeds, also prevents their use for other grains for a period of about two years.

So if corn becomes a glut on the market, the farmer is unable to plant wheat or other grains during that time.

Last year corn was in shorter demand than usual, and as a result many tons of the 1974 crop are still in local farm storage bins.

Neighborhood notes

Jack Rodick and his sister Mary were at Chatsworth last weekend for a family wedding.

On the holiday weekend members of the Pairs and Spares (B.C. Couples' Club) were at Lindhurst Park for a camping weekend. The Richard Carrs convened, and others attending were the Halletts, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Carr and family, the Ken Stivers, the Harvey Brown family, the Reesors —.

During July Rev. Bradley Cruston will take services at Brown's Corners United Church during Rev. Allen Hallett's vacation.

Anyone who has not picked up their tupperware, purchased at the recent party sponsored by the Happy Timers, should contact Mrs. Richard Carr.

Mrs. Alfred Miller and Mrs. Fred Leaf took The Star train to Stratford Wednesday of last week for a performance of Twelfth Night.

Among guests at the Inn on the Park early last week when Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mingay celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary and Paul's admittance to the bar, were their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Miller and Mrs. M.S. Mingay.
