Receives citation

Corporal John Hoover, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hoover of Anzac Road, residents of Richmond Hill since 1960, was recently presented with a civilian citation by the Base Commander at Divisions at the Canadian Forces Base Esquimalt.

The citation was awarded by the Town of Trenton in acknowledgement of assistance given to its police force.

During the evening of November 16, 1974, Constable Robert Galloway of the Trenton Police Force was attempting to arrest a person for causing a disturbance, when he was obstructed and physically assaulted by four others.

John Hoover, who was off duty and driving past, observed the disturbance. He returned to the scene and went to the assistance of the constable.

At the risk of injury to himself he remained with Constable Galloway and assisted in detaining three persons until other police officers arrived.

Chief of Police David Saunders commented, "In an era when citizens support of law enforcement is so necessary it is encouraging to see a member of the armed forces exercise his right as a citizen of the community."

Canada's wild or barren land is 50 per cent greater in area than its forest land.

World travellers home again

After three years in Africa and nine months of travel John and Maryann Gero are back in Canada to stay. They have been visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dowbiggin of Centre Street East.

John worked with CUSO (Canadian University Students Organization) for two years and then for another year for CIDA (Canadian International Development Agency) in Botswana, Africa.

Returning to Canada the young couple spent some time in India, Russia, Israel, Australia, New Zealand, Hong Kong, and Tokyo as they became truly world travellers.

MD carnival and sale

Gaily colored balloons formed the attractive setting for an exciting carnival and sidewalk sale held by Robin (11) and Hollie Murphy (9) and Rosemary Englesman (12) at 76-78 Springhead Gardens in Hillcrest Village, South Richmond Hill, Wednesday morning of last week.

They were assisted by Eric and John Engelsman, Jeffery deWolde, Roslyn MacLean and Michel Marsh.

Featured were games of skill and on sale were popcorn, refreshing drinks, doughnuts, books and many articles donated by residents of the area.

Rosemary's father purchased enough helium to inflate the dozens of balloons which added a gala touch.

Proceeds of the successful event, including the money raised on a draw for a turtle made by Hollie, will be sent to Rocket Ship 7, TV Channel 7 in Buffalo, to aid in the fight against Muscular Dystrophy.

The TV station, in turn, will forward the money to the Canadian MD association.

It is good to see youngsters taking an interest in others less fortunate than themselves and we heartily commend them.

Camping weekend

Eric and Merle George of North Taylor Mills Drive, along with Mrs. George Senior, their daughter Gabrielle and her friend Cindy MacMullen, left July 18 for an extended weekend of camping at Morrisburg on the St. Lawrence Seaway.

While there they enjoyed favorable weather with rain only one night, while other sections of Ontario's holiday country suffered from heavy rains and

Saved Hill man

A Richmond Hill man was rescued from a burning motel in Oro Township at midnight December 23 by Huntsville trucker Bill Hutchins who has been nominated for the Dunlop National Truck Hero Award for his courageous action.

Announcement of the final winner of this award will be made in November.

Hutchins was passing Cedar Creek Motel on his way back to Huntsville when he noticed flames shooting through the roof of the motel.

A fire which had been extinguished earlier in the evening had broken out again. He systematically searched the motel office and accommodation units, often on hands and knees because of the choking smoke.

Bob Harris of Richmond Hill was asleep in his smoke-filled room when Hutchins smashed in the door.

Pulling Harris to safety, Hutchins then returned to search the flaming building for others.

However, all the motel's occupants, except Harris, had vacated the premises after the earlier fire.

Mr. and Mrs. James Coursolle are now residing in Thunder Bay.

Flavorful salad dressings

FLAVORFUL SALAD DRESSINGS

A touch of spice, a few seeds or a pinch of dried herbs can give basic salad dressings a tremendous flavor lift. For instance celery seed is a favorite addition to French Dressing. These seeds are the dried fruit of the celery plant and are usually imported from India and France. They have an aromatic slightly bitter flavor that is desirable not only in salad dressings but also in pickles, potato salad, sauerkraut, coleslaw and stewed tomatoes.

There are many flavor touches that can be added to mayonnaise to give it a distinctive flavor or to make it especially suitable for a particular purpose. Buy a commercial mayonnaise or make your own and use these ideas for variations. A low calorie mayonnaise is now on the shelves and is quite palatable.
