

Shower is held for Margaret Empringham

Neighbors, relatives and friends gathered Tuesday evening of last week in the Community Hall to have a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Margaret Empringham and Rob Dickinson, who are being married in the Victoria Square United Church on September 6.

Margaret and Rob received many beautiful and useful gifts. Margaret invited everyone to attend her Trousseau Tea at her home Saturday from 2-5 p.m.

Ladies softball
The North York Ladies Softball Tournament will be held in the Victoria Square Park on Friday night and all day Saturday.

Everyone is invited to attend. So come along and give the girls your support. We trust the weatherman will cooperate.

Peewee softball
The Victoria Square boys pee-wee softball team defeated the Richvale Thursday evening of last week by 26-16. Dale Barker was the winning pitcher for Victoria Square.

We hope the boys' luck continues as they now enter the play-offs.

Neighborhood notes
Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. George Tooley and family in the passing of George's mother recently.

The many friends of Mrs. Ethel Boyd will be pleased to hear she is able to be home from York Central Hospital following surgery. We hope she continues to improve in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Draper and girls of Ottawa spent last week here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Draper.

Mrs. Gertrude Dennis of Toronto was laid to rest in the Victoria Square Upper Cemetery on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Birthdays greetings to John Tyndall, 10 years, August 21; Muriel Morton, August 22; Mrs. Stanley DeFoe, August 23.
