Fighting coroner for CBLT election coverage

Ontario's former fighting coroner, and latterly one of its most controversial MPPs, Dr. Morton Shulman, will join Bruce Rogers and Bill Casey on CBLT's Channel 5 Election '75 anchor desk for coverage of the provincial election, Sept. 18.

Dr. Shulman, who retired from politics this year, served as NDP member for High Park riding from 1967 to 1975.

Prior to that, as Ontario's chief coroner, he gained fame for his numerous crusades against bureaucratic bungling and autocratic government politics.

He'll be bringing his same outspoken approach to his election night analysis.

CBLT's election coverage starts at 8 p.m. and will be carried on the full Ontario television network.

Included in the coverage will be remotes at the headquarters of the three party leaders. Also, for the first time in Canada, a mobile land satellite station will be used to beam back the action from Liberal leader Robert Nixon's headquarters in Paris, Ontario.

"Sweet Jade" Played centre

In regard to the Entertainment Page pictures last week about the new local youth rock group "Sweet Jade", there was an incorrect reference to the shopping centre where they played recently.

"Sweet Jade" played in the north end mall of the Richmond Heights Centre, Yonge Street and Laverock Ave., Richmond Hill, and not at the other local shopping centre mentioned. They were promoting a back to school sale for Bob's Bottoms and Ups at the Richmond Heights Centre.

Also missing was the name of one of the "Sweet Jade" group, equipment manager Roger Wiegand of 391 Browndale Crescent.

ANTIQUING ABROAD

If you're an antique buff, you'll have the time of your life browsing in foreign countries. Let's face it, most of them were in the business of civilization many centuries before Columbus stepped ashore here.

The truly investigative individual will never pass up a visit to a "flea market". Here are some of the greatest sources for finding the unexpected bargain, the treasure (sometimes) and the unusual. The Rastro in Madrid, for example, has the reputation of having objects which have been brought to it from all over Europe and your chances of picking up valuable antiques there are very good.

Also, look for antique objects in the colonies of European countries. Emigrating citizens brought their possessions to the foreign land and in due course their household goods were sold, bartered or found their way into small shops. Don't forget that bargaining is the name - of the game abroad, and the older the clothes you wear at flea markets, the better the price.

THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWN OF RICHMOND HILL EXPLANATORY NOTE BY-LAW NO. 67-75

The provisions of this by-law apply to that part of the Town or of Richmond Hill that was in the Township of Vaughan prior to the formation of the Regional Municipality of York. By-law 2523 of the Township of Vaughan, which remains in force in that area, provides that in all Residential Zones, other than Rural Residential, if a dwelling is erected without a carport, the minimum sideyard requirements are 16 feet on one side and 5 feet on the other. This has been applied as referring to an attached garage although it does not specifically say so. The purpose of By-law 67-75 is to make it clear that the above provisions refer to an attached garage. The sections affecting the R1, R2, R3 Zones are the only ones amended because there are no other Residential Zones in the designated area which include that side yard clause.
