Faulty barn wiring blamed for blaze

Faulty wiring in a water pump was blamed for a barn fire at the home of David Anisman, RR 3, King, Nov. 6.

The fire caused $2,500 damage before being brought under control by King Fire Department.

Concord warehouse
A fire broke out in a warehouse in Concord and the latter received most of its damage from fire hoses.

The fire, which was believed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion in a large pile of cardboard boxes in the storage area, occurred

Nov. 7 about 4:30 p.m. at Rotor Electric Co., 141 Snidercroft Road.

Minor alarms
Richmond Hill firemen received several calls, but mostly for bonfires, including several for burning leaves.

They also attended a call at Bayview Avenue and Gormley, about 3:35 p.m., Nov. 7, after a tractor-trailer, driven by James Devlin of King City, went out of control and over a bank.

The local firefighters were on hand to clean up the gas spill.
