

Hillcrest forum on education tonight

Correspondent

Hillcrest Residents Association is holding an open forum at 8 p.m.

tonight (Wednesday) in Hillcrest Auditorium. Guest speaker will be

Board of Education Trustee Doug Allen, who will endeavor to answer questions concerning standards of education in York County. Compared with other areas — why is there a two and three-tiered system in this region — the feasibility of portable classrooms as opposed to the new schools — use of schools by the community — where can we see the value of increased taxes reflecting increased education costs?

These are some of the issues expected to be raised by ratepayers. So please do come and speak out.

Another public meeting with a representative of the York Region Roman Catholic School Board is being planned and a date will be announced shortly.

Membership in this ratepayers' group is $5 a couple and $3 single, which, besides giving you full voting rights on local issues, which will surely benefit you in many ways and will give you an invitation to a free big social event in the new year — a spring dance — hopefully in the South Richmond Hill Recreation Centre now under construction.

If you are unable to come and sign up on the 26th, please give Joan Hooper a call at 884-6900.
