2 arrested
in robbery

Two King residents and a Newmarket man have been arrested in a robbery at Beckers Milk Store in Stroud.

Police said two men
entered the store, armed with a pellet gun and demanded money from the cashier.

They then ordered her into the back room and told her to stay there for 10 minutes.

Investigation by police resulted in the arrest of Bruce Heenan, 18, and Harold Wood, 19, both of Conc. 5 in King; and Giovanni Mirabelli, 19, of Newmarket.

Loughlin wins by 3-2 Richvale minor loop

Bantam
Loughlin Lumber 3, Unionville 2. This was an exciting game right down to the wire Nov. 15 with Loughlin coming up the winner. Loughlin scorers were Wayne Callaghan with one and Glen Gettel with two. Assists went to Donnie Peters, Jeff Brooks and Paul Dimock. The goaltending duties were assumed at the last minute by Robert Smillie, when Randy MacDonald was absent.

Bob turned in a fine performance.

Surf Marine 5, Oak Ridges 4. The Richvale lads come out 5-4 winners November 22 with only one penalty called and that at the end of the contest. Scoring for Surf Marine were Mauro Fantin with three, Ron Keating and Frank Cavallo. Assist points were earned by Mike Reeve, Fantin, George Hussey and Cavallo.

Scotia over Stroud

A big four point weekend was chalked up by the Scotia Bank Minor Peeewe team in Richmond Hill as they defeated Stroud at home Friday night by a 6-4 count and repeated against King City in King Saturday by a 5-1 score.

The game against Stroud was a wide open high scoring contest with Ritchie and Laird, sharing the goaltending for Richmond Hill, playing well.

Big gun in this game was Kiritit who collected two goals while Munro assisted three times in a solid effort. Other Banker goals went to Hull, Flett, Major and Easton with assists to Langdon, Dunnett, two, Marinelli, Major and Moffatt.

The Scotia Bank's defense was never better Saturday as the company of Apenis, Murphy, Moritsugu, Jones, Langdon, Rockarts and goalies Ritchie and Stanway held King City to a single goal.

Offensively the stars were Jim Flett with one goal and three assists and Brian Dunnett with a hat-trick plus one assist. Kiritit also collected a goal. Assists went to Rockarts and Hull.

These two games saw a total of only six minor Penalties called as all three teams stuck strictly to clean, fast hockey.

Niblett victors

The Richmond Hill Wilson Niblett Minor Peeewe's downed Newmarket 3-1 Sunday afternoon in one of their best displays of the season to date.

Ken Jensen opened the scoring for Richmond Hill on a pass from Gary Sutherland. David Noble then scored what proved to be the winner set up by Mike Briggs and Eddie Mains.

Newmarket came back strongly and scored its lone goal but the Hillers scored again with Mark Ellison passing the puck to Gary Sutherland who popped it in.

Shots on goal were 25 to 11 for Richmond Hill.

It was a different story Wednesday of last week as the team lost a 6-4 game to Thornhill.

Scoring for Richmond Hill: Mark Joslin from Duane Aubie; Joslin from Doug Rae, Captain Mark Stevens from Aubie and Eddie Mains; Aubie from Joslin and Doug Rae.

Gord Stanway played strongly in the nets for Richmond Hill stopping a breakout. The third period saw Don Fawcett taking over. Richmond Hill outshot Thornhill 19-16.

Mark Ellison hgd to sit out the game because of a badly bruised shin and Bruce McLean was hurt late in the third period.

Badminton starts

The Richmond Hill Badminton B league team got off to a winning start last week downing Parkwood 10-6 at Parkwood.

Scores were as follows:
Ladies doubles, Carol McDonald and Joyce Collier winning 15-3, 18-15; Jill Dalton and Tanya Savoye splitting 18-16, 5-15.
Men's doubles, Cam Cairncross and Larry Marchbank splitting 15-18, 15-3; Derek Smith and Orville Wong losing 9-15, 13-15.

Mixed doubles: Tanya Savoye and Cam Cairncross winning 15-4, 15-10, Jull Dalton and Larry Marchbank winning 17-14, 15-9; Carol McDonald and Derek Smith losing 4-15, 6-15; Joyce Collier and Orville Wong winning 17-15, 15-7.

Richmond Hill's next match is away to Thornhill Park Dec. 10. Anyone wishing to play badminton should attend Langstaff Secondary School on Garden Avenue, Tuesday's and Thursday's at 8 p.m.

A feast of swimming ribbons

Aquatic Club swimmers continue to show marked improvement at each meet and brought home a spread of ribbons from the last Pennant Meet, with vital seconds knocked off their times.

Helga Pape got a first place ribbon in the 200 metres "C" freestyle and Terry Roberts, a first in the "B" race, both with improved times.

In the Individual Medley, the swimmers must swim 50 metres in the fly, backstroke, breaststroke and freestyle for a total of 200 metres.

Steve Davey notched first place in the 200 I.M. with team mate Bonnie Branch placing second in an exciting "A" event.

As the only "A" breast stroke swimmer, Davey had to swim breast stroke against the fly swimmers to get his second first place ribbon.

Bonnie came first in the 200 metres "A" backstroke; first in the 400 metres freestyle "A" event, knocking 14 seconds off her previous best.

Mark Innes, came second in the 200 "B" breast stroke and freestyle events — an excellent performance for a newcomer. Gordie Wood got a second in the 200 I.M. "B" event and third in the 200 metres "B" breast stroke.

Scott Nirenberski came third in the 200 metres freestyle "B" event.

David Justice, a swimmer who has showed remarkable improve-
