The family of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yake entertained at a surprise dinner party Saturday night in honor of their parents' 35th wedding anniversary. Present for occasion were the brothers (and their wives) and the sisters (and their husbands) of Mr. and Mrs. Yake. The Watchmen Quartette (their son David is a member of this singing group) called in later in the evening.

Family history

Harold Doner has completed his book on the genealogy of the Doner family and it is now available. Harold has spent many long hours over a period of 12 years in tracing and compiling this information.

Marriage

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Steckley (nee Norma Brubacher) who were married November 29 in the Brethren in Christ Church in Carlisle, Penna. Mr. Steckley has lived in this community for many years. Guests from this area were his daughter Miriam, his brothers Peter and Landon Steckley, Mrs. Dorothy Wideman, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Winger and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Heise.

Neighborhood notes

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Cowell and family of Oakville enjoyed supper Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Boynton.

Mrs. Donald Dickinson is visiting her sister in New York for a couple of weeks. Mrs. Dickinson is still using crutches as a result of her motor accident of a year ago.

Rev. and Mrs. Percy Barley of Calgary, Alta., spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Doner.

The Workmen Quartette of St. Catharines sang at both services Sunday at the Missionary Church. One of the members of the group, Paul Hisey, was the guest speaker at the evening service.

Mr. S. Creti (brother of J. Creti at the BP station) had his leather coat with his wallet containing a sum of money and a number of valuable papers stolen last Tuesday night. He would appreciate it very much if the person responsible would return both papers and coat.

Sunday guests of Rev. and Mrs. Cecil Rosenberger were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rosenberger of Breslau, Mr. and Mrs. Elverne Rosenberger and Stephen of Lindsay and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Rosenberger and family. The occasion was daughter Faye's fifth birthday.

Miss Norma Brubacher of Carlisle, Penna., visited in the area over the weekend.

Mrs. Roy Wideman, who has been ill at home for several months was moved to Briarbush Hospital in Stouffville Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Brillinger and family enjoyed the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Don Logan and family of Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brillinger and family spent a couple of days with friends in Everett, Penna.

Nine little friends attended Faye Rosenberger's fifth birthday party Saturday afternoon.

A new Christian book store has opened in the Oak Ridges Plaza.

The Youth Fellowship met Friday evening in the Fellowship Hall of the Missionary Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Scott and family of Orangeville were supper guests Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Boynton.

Miss Miriam Steckley has moved to an apartment in Richmond Hill.
