The Bayview matmen have recently added more hope of capturing some championship honors this year, when they fared well against university wrestlers. Last Saturday some of Bayview's wrestlers competed in the University of Toronto invitational tournament. Steve Penyge placed third in his weight class, while Paul Drymay and Jim Houston placed fourth in their classes.

The last dance at Bayview was financially as successful as The Stampeders dance. But in terms of entertainment it wasn't. The first half of the evening, featuring Bond, was too good for words. The band had the entire audience with them, stomping, cheering, enjoying themselves, and most people were sad to see them leave. Then came Edward Bear. His music is good, but it isn't what you'd call rock, which was what the audience was after.
