'And then I'd like . . .'

Santa's well-hidden eyes are fixed on his young visitor, but Daphne Gibson of Kennedy Road, Unionville, is apparently lost in thought making sure nothing is omitted from this year's list of wishes. Daphne was one of a few dozen area youngsters who braved the Saturday storm to see Santa and enjoy other entertainment at the annual Victoria Square district Lions Club Christmas party for children in the community centre.

Repairman lost fingers

A Kleinburg man suffered the loss of three fingers in an unusual accident at Coin Wash on Islington Ave., Dec. 7.

According to police, William Francisco, 26, of Donhill Crescent, was repairing one of the overhead doors which was held by a steel cable. The latter was wrapped around three of his fingers, when a wrench holding the spring-loaded cable, snapped and cut his three fingers off.

He was treated for his injury at York Finch Hospital.
