

Magna midgets have good week win 2, tie 1

Magna Midgets inability to handle the Toronto teams proved to be their undoing in a Midget "A" tournament held in Orillia over the weekend.

In the opening game Magna lost 5-1 to Toronto Summit. Magna trailed 2-1 with less than two minutes remaining, but any thoughts of a tie vanished when Summit scored three quick goals.

Drew Plaxton was spectacular in goal. Mark Wilson scored the lone Magna goal.

Magna then met Orillia Y's men and won 7-0. Paul Norman was full measure for the shut out. Greg MacMillan led Magna offensively with three goals, while Mark Gossman chipped in two.

Jim Wood and Dan Moore got the other goals. Assists were earned by Rob Frater (2), Jim Wood (2), Stan Norman, Guenther Baeur and Mark Gossman.

In the consolation finals, Magna met Leaside, but came up on the short end of a 9-6 score. The big Magna Marksman was Cam Green with three.

Other goals came from Ron Armstrong, Mark Gossman and Jim Wood.

Assists went to Rob Frater (2), Mark Wilson, Stan Norman, Brian Smith, Bill Byers and Grey MacMillan.

In league play Magna defeated Unionville 6-3. Guenther Baeur led the way with three goals. Stan Norman, Dan Moore and Rick Gerard picked up the other goals.

Assists went to Brian

Smith (2), Bill Byers, Ron Armstrong, Jim Wood and Dan Moore.

Magna Midgets lost an exhibition match to Maple 6-2. Dan Moore scored from Greg MacMillan and Scott Taylor scored an unassisted goal.

MAGNA WIN 2 TIE 1

The local second

Midget Team, Magna Midgets had a good week winning two and tying one. This has kept them in first place in their division.

Last Saturday, Bolton visited the locals and for the second time this year the teams battled to a 4-4 tie.

Magna had to come from behind in the final minute when Cam Green scored to tie it with 8 seconds remaining and the goal tender on the bench.

This goal was set up by Greg MacMillan and Guenther Baeur. The other Magna goals were scored by Greg Macmillan with two and Rob Frater.

Other assists went to J.

Wood (2), Rob Frater, Stan Norman, Cam Green and Brian Smith.

Whip Unionville This last week, Unionville were the visitors and Magna were victorious 7-4.

Scoring for Magna were Rob Frater, Greg Macmillan (2), Rick Girard (2), Mark Gossman, Bill Byers with assists going to Rob Frater (2), Jim Wood (2), Dan Moore, Mark Gossman, Mack Wilson and Cam Green.

Edge Thornhill Rick Girard scored the Sunday Magna visited Thornhill and in an extremely exciting game for the local eaked out a 3-2 victory.

The outstanding player in the game was Paul MacLaughlin, Bill Byers Norman in goal and

He stopped Thornhill dead throughout the game. Brian Smith assisted by Rick Girard scored the winner with seven seconds left in the game. Other scorers for Magna were Cam Green and Stan Norman.

Legion midgets win 8-5, lose 6-5

The Richmond Hill Legion Midgets split games last week downing Newmarket 8-5 but losing by 6-5 to Orillia.

Against Newmarket the Richmond Hill goal scorers were Chris DeGeer from Doug Lewis and Randy Martin from Phil Wood in the first period.

Newmarket got one of the goals back in the second but Richmond Hill poured home four straight with Ron Abernathy scoring unassisted; Randy Martin unassisted; Tom Peden from Wood; and Dave Forster from Al Delfabro.

The Legion boys scored two more in the third with Roy Russell tallying from Larry Trotter and Phil Wood scoring unassisted.

Newmarket made a late rush scoring four goals but it was too little and too late.

The Orillia game was a seesaw affair with Orillia popping in the winning goal in the final period with only 12 seconds to go.

For Richmond Hill it was Roy Russell scoring from Steve Bishop and Phil Wood; Dale Strang from Doug Lewis; Russell again from Wood and Tom Peden; Randy Martin from Abernathy and Wood; and Martin again from Delfabro.

53 crashes in first week

The new year was only a week old when the Oak Ridges detachment of Ontario Provincial Police issued its first traffic roundup of the year, and disclosed it had investigated 53 motor vehicle accidents.

It also disclosed injuries to 15 people in the latter, with damages amounting to $28,175.
