The games go on

Rev. Cecil Rosenberger Gormley Missionary Church

from the churches

GORMLEY - Hockey fans in North America, especially in Canada, have recently been jostled into exciting team loyalty with the advent of Super Series '76. Eight of our National Hockey League teams have found themselves with their skates on the line against the two Soviet teams; the Red Army, and the Wings.

Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the Pioneer and Perfector of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scoring its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Physical stamina, individual initiative, and team co-operation have been closely scrutinized. Victory and loss are experienced but cannot be determined until the game is over. But the games go on!

Thinking ahead is the key to avoiding accidents, stresses the Industrial Accident Prevention Association. If this suggestion is put into practise by both drivers and pedestrians, we'll have fewer accidents on the streets.

Events, similar to our Olympic Games of today, were in operation during the times of the writing of the New Testament. The Apostle Paul parallels the Christian life to that of the runner in competition. In Hebrews 12:1, 2, we read: "Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us."

All unnecessary equipment is thrown off by the runner so that he is not tripped up in his progression. In all of this he is keeping a steadfast look towards his Coach. Dire calamity could result if he listened to someone else. Jesus Christ, the Coach of the race of life, promises to complete our beginning with victory as we obey and follow Him. Romans 8:37: "In all these things we are more than conquerors through Him (Jesus Christ) that loved us."

Ontario RENT REVIEW IMPORTANT DATE CHANGES Key rent review deadlines for LANDLORDS and TENANTS have been extended as of January 16, 1976. Here are the new dates. For tenancy agreements taking effect on or after July 30, 1975 and up to and including December 31, 1975, TENANTS wishing to dispute increases up to eight per cent for that period must make application on the appropriate form by February 29, 1976. For tenancy agreements taking effect on or after July 30, 1975 and up to and including December 31, 1975, LANDLORDS wishing to charge more than eight per cent over the rent charged during the last full month prior to August 1, 1975, for the above period, must make application on the appropriate form by February 29, 1976. If the LANDLORD and TENANT do not agree on a rent increase above the eight per cent guideline, and do not apply to have the rent for that period reviewed, the TENANT is entitled to a rebate of any rent paid in excess of eight per cent by February 29, 1976. The maximum rent LANDLORDS may charge tenants after January 1, 1976 for all tenancy agreements which became effective on or after July 30, 1975 is eight per cent more than the rent charged during the last full month prior to August 1, 1975. A landlord collecting more than this contravenes the rent review legislation and may, on summary conviction, be fined up to $2,000. In respect to tenancy agreements taking effect on or after July 30, 1975 and up to and including April 30, 1976, LANDLORDS wishing to charge more than eight per cent for any period after January 1, 1976 must make application on the appropriate form by February 29, 1976. For tenancy agreements taking effect on or after January 1, 1976, TENANTS wishing to dispute any increase must make application on the appropriate form by February 29, 1976, or 60 days after receiving a notice of increase, whichever comes last. RENT REVIEW FORMS Until the rent review offices are in operation, TENANTS and LANDLORDS may obtain forms from offices of the Ministry of Housing, Ministry of Natural Resources (northern affairs branch offices only), Ministry of Revenue assessment offices, Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations and Ontario Housing Corporation branch offices in Sudbury, Thunder Bay, Ottawa, Cambridge, Hamilton and London. Check your telephone directory for the local address. Mail the COMPLETED forms to Rent Review at the postal box designated for the municipality in which your accommodation is located.
