A Valentine surprise

Norma Constable, right, was winner of the draw prize at a dance Saturday night in Maple Community Hall. June Hill, left, presented the prize: red roses in an antique-style brass container, donated by a local delicatessen. More than 120 persons attended the event. Proceeds from the dance will go to Maple boys' and girls' minor hockey teams.

CONCORD — The euchre party on Feb. 10 sponsored by the Golden Era Club, was an overwhelming success. There were eight tables of players, double the crowd from last month.

High score winner, for the ladies, was Mrs. Donnie Warwick; for the men, Wilf Moffit. Low Score winners were Sylvia Snider and Al Bain. Mrs. Snider also won the doorprize.

The next euchre will be held March 9 beginning at 8 p.m.

Dance Friday

There are only three days left to get your tickets to the Cub and Scout dance Friday.

Tickets are selling quickly and the evening promises to be one to remember. Denny's Disc Jockey Service will be providing the music and there will be refreshments, as well as door prizes and spot prizes. So if you don't as yet have tickets, call Mrs. B. Tainsh at 669-2005.

Ladies get-together

The first Monday afternoon get-together for Concord ladies last week took the theme of Valentine's Day.

There was a good turnout, and everyone enjoyed sandwiches and a special cake made by Lillian Smith. A macrame plant hanger was given away as a doorprize.

Every Monday there will be a social tea between 1 and 3 p.m. at the Centre.

Don't let babysitting problems keep you away — children are welcome.

For further information, call Mrs. Smith at 669-2011 or Iris Taylor at 669-1730.

Books donated

A special thanks on behalf of the library, to those who made contributions. Among donors are Mrs. Baker of Langstaff Road who provided an interesting History of Vaughan Township; Mrs. John Wiedman, who gave a number of National Geographics and other magazines, and to Randy Teeple, who provided a large assortment of novels.

Crafts and sports

The Crafts and Sports programs have met with great enthusiasm from residents. Registration is full for most activities. The programs are staffed in part by volunteers who put forth a tremendous amount of effort.

Don Smith, a resident of King High Drive, built the macrame boards and the easels for the art class and there are volunteers working in the library area.

There are qualified teachers instructing in the various crafts programs and a librarian is always on hand in the library to provide assistance.

Enjoy holiday

Mr. and Mrs. Pat McCauley recently returned from a two-week vacation in sunny Barbados which they spent with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beam of St. Catharines.

They stayed at the Margate Apartments in Hastings on the Caribbean side of the Island.

Upon their return they were greeted by their children with streamers and champagne. Needless to say, it is a holiday they will never forget.
