Ray-More 2, United Drain 1. Adam Celsie from Tim Boseweh and Simon Boseweh unassisted got the Ray-More counters in playoff action March 8. Louis Nagy was outstanding in goal for Ray-More. Duncan Butler scored an unassisted goal for United Drain.

Royals whip Bracebridge

RICHVALE — Richvale Bantam Royals bowled over Bracebridge 6-0 in the opening game March 5 of the all Ontario quarter finals.

Stuart Ellis, in keeping Bracebridge off the score sheet, turned in his third shut out performance in a row.

Terry Thorsell netted the first goal unassisted and Shawn McDowell followed with a marker from Heinz Josberg in the first period.

In the second period Richvale hit again with a goal from the stick of Brian Celsie with assists going to Terry Thorsell and Danny Iafano.

Danny Iafano struck for a marker one minute later from Terry Thorsell. Ellis was solid in net in the third period while his mates tapped in two more goals for Richvale.

Janie Chianelli ripped a shot between a screened Bracebridge goalie's legs with help from Paul Ellis and Heinz Josberg.

Iafano rapped in the final counter from Thorsell and Celsie to make a 6-0 final score.

NHL Tourney

In the Little NHL Tournament held at Oak Ridges, Richvale Bantam Royals defeated arch rivals Bradford 6-3, but bowed out of the tournament by losing 3-2 to host Oak Ridges.

Richvale struck first with a goal at 3:49 of the first period from Randy DePiero's stick with the assist going to Jeff Brooks.

Bradford came back with two goals in the second period, then Randy DePiero did the job again from Paul Mills to lead the score knotted at 2-2 at the end of the period.

Celsie ties it

Bradford went ahead 3-2 in the third, but Brian Celsie rapped one in from Danny Iafano and Terry Thorsell.

Jeff Brooks upped it to 4-3 with an unassisted counter and Terry Thorsell scored with an assist from Danny Iafano.

Brian Celsie notched the final goal for the Royals leaving a final score of 6-3 for Richvale.

Lose to Oak Ridges

The Royals second game was an exciting, hard-hitting affair but they dropped out of the tournament by losing 3-2 to Oak Ridges.

Still need for more billets

By Bob Reeves

RICHMOND HILL — There are just a few days left now before the Midget Tournament gets under way for the ninth year and it's going to be a good one.

Games start Monday morning at 9 a.m. and the opening ceremonies are at 7 p.m. that evening.

We hope everyone will come out to see that game which pits our Legion Midget A's against Niagara Falls.

Last week I wrote about the pressing need for more billets for the boys from out of town.

Well, the response was great as we knew it would be and now with just a few days to go we need room for 22 boys.

Please, if you can help at all, give George and Kay Wood a call at 773-4429. It will be much appreciated.

House League Finals

There's another big day coming up in local hockey and that, of course, is the house league finals which take place on Sat., April 10 beginning at nine a.m.

The teams are currently in playoffs and playing fine hockey.

Why not come out and watch them this weekend and give them some vocal support.

And we still have several of our town teams in York Simcoe playoffs and doing well.

This is really a pleasant experience, both for the teams and the coaches and they all deserve a lot of credit for the fine work they have done this year.

I'll write more about coaches later on but at this time I'd like to thank them all for their time and fine work with the teams.

The same applies to our house league coaches.

This group receives less recognition, by far, than the OMHA coaches, but they do a grand job and it's much appreciated.

Heck of a Job

One of the association's functions is to train boys and girls in the oft times onerous job of refereeing.

This operation comes under the joint leadership of Rene Fournier and John Leonard who have done one heck-of-a-fine job this year — and so have the young people who work the games.

The referees are young and inexperienced and as such make mistakes. It saddens me to see them baited and shouted at during a game for having missed a call or two.

They are learning, so let's be a little more charitable to them and give them a chance to improve and enjoy their work.

Skatathon

Money is coming in from the Skatathon and this Saturday will be a big collection day.

It is still too early to announce the three winners and I'm very sorry about that, but be patient, it won't be long now.

And that's it for this week. Remember the Tournament all next week, and our house league and town team playoffs.

So, come on out and enjoy some Happy Hockey.

Bond Steelers are out

RICHMOND HILL — Bond Steel Minor Midgets were shunted to the sidelines by Barrie in York Simcoe Playoff action, losing 5-1 and 6-3 in a best of three series.

Barrie opened the scoring midway through the first period and increased their lead to 2-0 early in the second.

Scott Taylor finally blinked the red light late in the second period with Steve Madden and Alan Clark drawing assists.

Barrie upped the score to 3-1 seconds after a Steeler's penalty expired. Barrie rapped in two more goals to increase their lead to 5-1 and end all thought of a Steeler's comeback.

Bond Steel was outshot 34 to 10 on the game and Steve Shadoff in the Richmond Hill nets turned aside 13 shots in the first period alone while his mates managed only two shots.

The return game in Barrie saw the Steelers outthudded early and were down 3-0 at the end of the first period.

Bond Steel's Dale Banton connected on a power play effort from Steve Bowers and Blair

Close gaps

Just 66 seconds later, Steve Madden closed the gap to 3-2 with an assist going to Ray Roberts.

Shortly after this Steeler surge, Barrie went ahead 4-2 on a power play.

Dale Banton rapped in his second goal with just four seconds left in the second to bring Richmond Hill within one goal of Barrie.

Penalties early in the third period negated Bond Steel's comeback chances.

Barrie made it 5-3 with a two man advantage and 6-3 with a one man advantage to put the game out of reach.

Dino Capotosto played well in the last two periods after settling down from the early Barrie barrage.

Exhibitions now

The Steelers are currently playing exhibition games in preparation for the King Clancy series and the Wingham Tournament on March 27.

Bond Steel came home with a 5-3 victory in a Minor Midgets AAA but came up on the short side of a 4-3 score.

Chinguacousy opened with two goals in the first period with solid positional play paying off.

In the second period Peter Halliday connected with a deflected shot to make it 2-1 for Chinguacousy.

In the third period the teams traded two goal efforts with Scott Taylor and Reiner Pleschberger picking up the Steeler goals.

The game ended at 4-3 for Chinguacousy with the shots even at 24 each.

Tourney bantams win 3-2

RICHMOND HILL — The Tournaments Inc. Minor Bantams edged by Orillia 3-2 in the opening game of their York-Simcoe finals last week.

Richmond Hill jumped into a 2-0 lead in the first period on goals by Maurice Del Fabro and Danny Henderson with assists to Craig Halliday, two, Del Fabro and David Allen.

Orillia fought back to tie the game in the second which was bad all way round for the Hillers who also lost Doug Eldridge with a fractured collar bone.

Richmond Hill got the winning goal in the third period as Mark Austin scored on a rebound from Henderson.

The Tournaments boys had to scramble to hold onto their lead in the final four minutes of the game as Orillia removed its goalie in favor of an extra attacker. David Jordan played a tremendous game in goal for Richmond Hill. Special mention should also go to Doug Jones who put on a fine effort on defence.

Clancy Tournament

The Richmond Hill team has been competing in a series of exhibition games with Metro Toronto Hockey League teams prior to the commencement of the King Clancy tournament which starts in April.

The Tournaments team downed North York Rangers 8-2 and tied the Toronto Olympics 1-1. On March 13 they tied

Hill badmintoners sneak into playoff

RICHMOND HILL — The Richmond Hill Badminton Club downed St. Clements 10-6 last week in an exciting match to win their last game and qualify for the Toronto Interchurch Badminton League playoffs.

They made it by just one point edging out Ryerson for second place with Thorncliffe having on the league.

Individual results were as follows: Ladies' doubles, Tanya Savoye and Jill Dalton splitting 15-12 and 13-15; Hilda Baxter and Joyce Collier winning 15-12, 15-8.

Men's doubles, Doug Andrews and Frank Stanway winning 15-4, 15-8; Derek Smith, Orville Wong splitting 12-15, 15-11.

Mixed doubles, Tanya Savoye and Frank Stanway losing 10-15, 3-15; Jill Dalton and Doug Andrews winning 15-4, 15-9; Hilda Baxter and Derek Smith splitting 18-14, 4-15; Joyce Collier, Orville Wong splitting 15-12, 4-15.

Plaxton got the final goal assisted by Joel Reeves and Gerber.

Other assists went to Hughes, Dan O'Sullivan, Gary Carvin, Jim Majury and Jeff Joslin.

Epic will also be participating in the North York Invationals tournament during the playoffs.

Scoring for Epic Realty was Rick Gerber, two, assisted by Plaxton on neat passing plays.

Scott Bartlett continued his torrid scoring pace by getting a hat-trick and also assisting on a goal by Hughes.

Epic Realty lose 3-0 to Orillia on Sunday

RICHMOND HILL — The Richmond Hill Epic Realty Bantams lost the first game of their York Simcoe playoff finals by 3-0 to Orillia Sunday night in Orillia.

Earlier, the same Epic boys had bounced Aurora out of the playoffs in four games by beating them 4-2 in the final game after losing the previous one by 8-3.

It's the first time the Epic Realty boys have advanced as far as the finals in York Simcoe play.

Sunday's opener saw Orillia having an edge in the play but the Hillers were also running into tough luck around the nets.

No luck

One juncture of the game saw the Orillia goalie some 30 feet out of his net only to see the Epic fellows shoot wide of the open net.

Star of the game for Richmond Hill was goalie Ted Inch who played tremendously as two of the three goals put past him were in no way his fault.

The Epic boys were slated to host Orillia in the second game Monday night with the third game back in Orillia next Sunday.

Bounce Aurora

Prior to the present series with Orillia, the Epic team dropped an 8-3 game to Aurora with David Plaxton scoring from Scott Bartlett and Richard Hughes; Plaxton again from Hughes and Jeff Joslin; and Hughes from Plaxton.

Then came the finale with Richmond Hill ousting Aurora from the playoffs via a 4-2 win March 11 right in Aurora.

Goalie hot

It turned out to be one of Richmond Hill's best games of the season replete with some fantastic goaltending by goalie Rick Warren to stop the Aurora club.

Scoring for Epic were Scott Bartlett, Richard Hughes, David Plaxton and Joel Reeves with

Black's in finals

RICHMOND HILL — "They came out burnin'", was the way Richmond Hill Black's Bantams coach Jim Stewart put it.

He was referring to his team's 4-1 win over Barrie in the final game of their York Simcoe semi final series which propelled the locals into the finals against Thornhill.

Black's wasted little time getting on the scoring sheet with only 26 seconds having lapsed before they hit paydirt.

Barrie tied the game within a short time but it was mostly Richmond Hill from there on as the Black's forwards took the game to Barrie.

Curtis Barry was his usual steady self in the Richmond Hill nets and the forwards and defence were excellent in beating a fine Barrie club.

Richmond Hill goals were by Gary Bubeloff from Matt Zurich; Bubelof from Dean Logan and Zurich; and Logan from Zurich; and Jack Vantol from Scott Campbell.

The Barrie Examiner stated in its edition this week that "Richmond Hill either has new players or a new coach as we have handled them well all year".

Coach Stewart has grown a mustache and the Hill players are the same with the exception that they "have jelled as a team", said one club official.
