Finally, a highlight. The presence of Mrs. Gordie Howe to watch son Murray Howe, Number 9, naturally.

Niblets in clean sweep

RICHMOND HILL — The Wilson Niblett Minor Peeeweewee A team finished its York Simcoe consolation playoff series with a clean sweep downing Aurora by 4-3 March 19.
Ken Jensen led the winning offensive with two goals with singles to Doug Rae and Mark Stevens. The goal by Stevens was a spectacular one man effort as he stickhandled around two defencemen and continued on to beat the goalie.

Two assists went to Eddie Main with Bruce MacLean, Duane Aubie, Mark Stevens, and Dave Leuschner getting Leuschner played his usual outstanding game on defence.

The same Niblett boys decided Thornhill Peeeweewee B's March 21 with Doug Rae getting two goals with singles to Ken Jensen and Gary Sutherland. The Thornhillers had only lost one other game this season. Richmond Hill tied the MTHL Voyageurs 2-2 in the Clancy tournament exhibition series Wednesday of last week.

Bruce MacLean opened the scoring from Dave Leuschner; and Mark Stevens scored the tying goal from Ken Jensen.
Another exhibition game Saturday saw the Niblett team continue their winning way in the Clancy series by defeating Cedar Hill 2-1.

Ken Jensen scored for Richmond Hill from Mark Stevens and Eddie Main; and Gary Sutherland from Jensen and Leuschner.

the press. That's me. Terry Chapman did a beautiful job in this department and she was ably assisted by her friend, Eric. These things count, you know.
And now the award for the most optimistic person of all. Tournament President Marsh Amos who, at the height of the action, at the height of the exhaustion, came out and said he was already planning for next year.
That'll be the 10th anniversary of the tournament and he really wants to make it "the best yet".
Do you know what he said? "As soon as this tournament is over, I'm getting on the phone and lining up next year's. I want to get a team from every province in the country."
Now that's class. And that's Marsh. You had better believe it.
Forget it
What else is there to say? Nothing except there were no major incidences during the tournament. Except me. And I'm not about to discuss it. After all, survival is the name of the game. Isn't it?

Rangers lead playoff games

WILLOWDALE — The Willowdale Rangers took a commanding two game lead in their best-of-five North York Senior hockey semi finals against Downsview Flyers by edging them 2-1 in the first game and blasting them 7-2 in the second one.
The A series saw the Don Mills Comets tying Victoria Village in the first game
