Entertaining with ease

Benefit from cookery show

RICHMOND HILL — The introductory program March 31 was sponsored by the Richmond Hill-Thornhill Family Services were the first of more than a dozen groups to benefit from a series of five cooking demonstrations being presented this spring in the Blue Flame Room of Consumers' Gas Company, 500 Elgin Mills Road East.

The demonstrations presented by home economist Sylvia Binkley are sponsored by a number of community groups. The first three focus on Entertaining with Ease.

In addition to recipes for three complete menus, the program goes into time, money and energy saving tips.

The two remaining demonstrations, to be presented on May 19 and May 26, will present Barbecue Know-How.

A repeat program tonight (Wednesday) at 7:30 is being sponsored by the Mary and Martha Guild of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church, Langstaff Cubs and Scouts and the Aurora Beta Sigma Phi. Tickets are $1.50 and proceeds go to the sponsoring groups. On April 14 there will be a third presentation sponsored by the Order of the Eastern Star, Our Lady's Guild of Oak Ridges and the Newmarket Rug Hookers.

For further information about any of these programs contact a member of one of the sponsoring groups or call Mrs. Binkley at 884-9105, 887-5847 or 895-4577.

One of Mrs. Binkley's favorite dishes in the Entertaining with Ease series is the elegant cheese cake:

Elegant Cheese Cake
 1 1/4 cups graham wafer crumbs
 1/4 cup granulated sugar
 one third cup melted or softened butter
 1 1/2 pounds cream cheese
 1 1/2 cups cream (10 per cent) or milk
 1 and one third cups granulated sugar
 2 Tablespoons cake and pastry flour
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 4 eggs separated
 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
 3/4 teaspoon grated lemon rind
 Thoroughly combine crumbs, sugar and butter. Press into bottom of a 10 inch spring form pan.

Topping and Glaze.
Fruit Topping And Glaze
 Any selection of canned and/or fresh fruit may be arranged in an attractive design, i.e. strawberries, raspberries, peaches or apricots, apples, pears, grapes, mandarin oranges, oranges.
 1 cup apricot jam (use red currant jelly for a strawberry or raspberry cake)
 2 Tablespoons lemon juice
 2 Tablespoons liqueur (Cognac, Kirsch) or any fruit brandy, i.e. Grand Marnier, Cointreau, Apricot, etc.
 Soak fruit in liqueur, if you wish. Drain well. Arrange over cheese cake in concentric circles or in a pattern.
 Rub apricot jam through a sieve, (not necessary, if using jelly). Heat jam or jelly in a small saucepan over low gas flame until liquified.
 Add lemon juice and liqueur. Let glaze cool a little and then brush or spoon over fruit.
 Refrigerate for at least 8 hours or preferably overnight, so that the cake will cut well.
 Eight to ten servings.

Baptism prelude to confirmation a first at St. Mary's Anglican

RICHMOND HILL — A new milestone in the profession of faith and commitment to Christian Church was reached in a festival of baptism and confirmation in St. Mary's Anglican Church Sunday morning.

In the setting of the Holy Eucharist, 38 people were confirmed during the morning service, 26 young people and 12 adults. Three of the latter were baptized immediately preceding the confirmation.

Recent revisions in the Anglican orders of sacrament have reiterated the early recognition of baptism as the essential way of being admitted to life and communion in the Christian church, and confirmation as an extension of baptism.

Diocesan acceptance of this thesis has left it open to individual parishes to accept or reject adult baptism as a prelude to confirmation.

And on Sunday, designated Passion Sunday in the Church calendar, by agreement of the parish, St. Mary's welcomed Bishop Lewis Garnsworthy as celebrant in the combined service of adult baptism, confirmation and holy communion.

The officiant bishop, following the baptismal ceremony, gave a lighted candle to each person who had been baptized, saying:

"We give you this sign to show that you have passed from darkness to light; that henceforth you may shine as a light in the world, to the glory of God the Father.

"God has received you by baptism into His Church. We therefore welcome you into the Lord's family, as fellow members of the Body of Christ, as children of the same Heavenly Father, as inheritors with us of the Kingdom of God."

Confirmation of the 38 candidates was ministered by Bishop Garnsworthy assisted by the Rector, Rev. Bernard Barrett.

Following the Communion service all parishioners were invited to a confirmation reception in Wrixon Hall.

On the first day of Holy Week, Palm Sunday, there will be 8 a.m. the passion story; blessing and distribution of palms and holy eucharist.

There will be eucharist at 12:15 p.m. Monday, and celebrants are urged eucharist at St. Mary's, and at 10:30 the reading of to take their lunch for a time of sharing. There will also be a noon-time eucharist on Wednesday.

Other celebrations for Holy Week are listed in the church calendar.

A Seder meal at 6 p.m. Maunday Thursday, April 15, will be followed by eucharist at 8 p.m.

Mash the cream cheese, add cream or milk gradually and beat until smooth. Add combined sugar, flour, salt and mix. Add egg yolks, vanilla and lemon rind and mix well.

Beat egg whites to soft peak stage and fold into the cheese mixture.

Pour into pan and bake in a 325 degree F oven for 1 1/4 hours.

Turn oven off and let cake sit for 1 more hour. To serve top with Fruit
