

Perkins rink wins Gibson trophy

RICHMOND HILL — great mixed committee put a lot of time and effort into the spiel and other events throughout the year and we all agree that it was one of the best mixed schedule winners.

Winner of the Art and Maisie Gibson trophy was Floyd Perkins and his rink of Lois Hemstad, Larry and Judy Wales as they accumulated the most points over the regular schedule.

Winners of the second schedule were Wayne Ebers and his wife Joan and Rae and Glen Hamilton.

Third schedule winner was Mike Olync and his rink of Jean Brumwell, Joan Moon and Stewart Paul.

With Clark Bullock sparing for Rae Hamilton, Wayne Ebers and his rink won the spiel on Saturday.

Top prize on the first draw went to Ken and Jean Evans, Ross and Carole Wood.

Second prize went to Glen Charge and his rink while Len Lee and his rink managed to win the high game prize.

Unknown to Bob Thompson, his rink won third prize on the same draw.

On the second draw, Gerry Morlock and his rink of wife Gina, Bill and Brigitte Oliver won first prize. Bob Moore won second prize.

Frank Ellison, with a rink unfit for playoffs, won third prize on the same draw. One high game winner was Lorne Peck.

Third draw winner
On the third draw, top prize went to Wayne Ebers with second prize being won by Bill McLeod and his rink of John Scott and Nancy Walker.

Gold Medalist was the rink of Becky Webley and partners Sylvia Brown, Marj Privett, and Marge Carlson. Runner-ups, Doreen Stephenson, Joyce Pearsall, Miriam Webb and Ruth Tew.

Silver medalist, Joan Kirkpatrick's rink of Gwen Kearney, Karen Smith, and Joyce Greig. Runner-ups, Marjorie Linton, Ev Burden, Charlotte White and Sadie Youmans.

Chuck Daniar and his rink won third prize and the high game winner was Stu Given.

Bob Whittaker gave it a good try.

on Thursday April 22.

The men's schedule playoffs begin this week with skips Jack Shropshire, Lou Croton, Clarence Beach, Jim Anderson, Bob Taylor and Dave Pulchinski fighting it out for the championship.

Top prize for Perkins
Floyd Perkins entered the Senior Apple Blossom Spiel at Dixie last week with Clarence Beach, Curly Lynett and John Johnston and this rink won all five games to come home with the top prize. Floyd sure is making up for last year's lost time.

At Lindsay, on April 3, Audrey Loudon, Jean Brumwell, Joan Moon and Marilyn Cheeseman entered a 2-10 end game spiel and won fifth prize in the overall position of 24 teams. This foursome

Nervous
But as Don said, "I was too nervous in the back and was still shaking two ends later."

The Spring Thaw Brier continues this week with all rinks settled into their events.

Skips competing in the main event are: Lorne Peck, Walt Hamilton, Dalt Hicks, Clark Bullock and Don Brayshaw.

Second event skips are: Ron Logan, Bill Oliver, Bob Weiss, Wayne Hindmarch and Art Miller.

Floyd Perkins, Jack Peck, Walt Hamilton, Bob Thompson and John Graydon are skipping their rinks in the third event.

In the fourth event the hopeful skips are Leigh Raymond, Armon Tripp, Stu Given, Harold Loudon and Elgin Barrow.

Finals April 22
Play continues this week on Tuesday and Thursday with the finals beat Orillia 9-4 and Atikokan 13-6.

Ladies playoff
The Ladies Bayview playoffs conclude this week and have skips Win Simpson, Marg Mellon, Kay Copeland, Laura Watson, Blanche Reid, Terri Powell, Mildred Rois and Marilyn Howard competing for schedule curling championship.

Winners of the Ladies Floyd Perkins Trophy for skip entry rinks were: Jean Coneybare, Ruth Taylor, Brigitte Oliver and Pat Naylor. This rink came first in a flight on both schedules so no playoff was necessary.

The B flight winner was Terri Powell and her rink of Helen Schenoffer, Hilda Mulcahy and Lois Ring.

Closing bonspiel
A check of the bulletin board indicates that the middle draw for the closing bonspiel is already filled; a few openings remain on the first draw and the third draw is half filled.

Sign up now for this very popular spiel. The entertainment this year, is rumored, has an olympic theme with most curlers involved.

Dancing on Saturday night will be to Hugh Clairmont and his Sandmen.

Don't forget to say farewell to a great couple — Dick and Marlene Augustine — as they are leaving Markham to operate a trailer park. They have put a lot of time and effort into the club during their short stay and will be missed by all club members.

If you know Camp Hillbilly on Highway 11 just south of Gravenhurst on the west side, drop in and say hello or have Marlene prepare a hamburger or two for you. The price might be high, but you know it will be good.

Will Al Stuart now promote himself to skip? The men's golf day has been changed to Friday, June 4 at Gormley Green on Woodbine Avenue. Sign the list in the men's locker room if you are interested in the game and or a barbecued steak afterward.

Up the Olympics?

Mary Shantz is Mayor Drapeau (?) and Roz Swanson is the Olympic Torch Bearer. Enough, enough.

Poke fun at Olympics

THORNHILL — The 1976 Summer Olympics happened at the Thornhill Country Club last week, sort of, and everyone is hoping the real thing won't be as humorous.

Occasion was the annual Thornhill Ladies' Closing bonspiel and the theme this year was the "Summer Olympics in Montreal" and everyone came dressed accordingly.

Mayor Drapeau was there, sort of, the Olympic torch bearer was there, sort of, Lord

Killanin, and even the inevitable outdoor biffy.

Costumes, anyone?
Strictly impersonations. All these characters and-or landmarks were really the Thornhill Curling club ladies dressed for the occasion.

A real costume party. After the first day, things got down to serious action in the ladies' closing bonspiel with the actual competition broken down into, naturally, the Gold, Silver and Bronze winners.

Gold Medalist was the rink of Becky Webley and partners Sylvia Brown, Marj Privett, and Marge Carlson. Runner-ups, Doreen Stephenson, Joyce Pearsall, Miriam Webb and Ruth Tew.

Silver medalist, Joan Kirkpatrick's rink of Gwen Kearney, Karen Smith, and Joyce Greig. Runner-ups, Marjorie Linton, Ev Burden, Charlotte White and Sadie Youmans.

Chuck Daniar and his rink won third prize and the high game winner was Stu Given.

Bob Whittaker gave it a good try.
