LOBLAWS PRICES ARE COMPETITIVE

Proof. Proof. Proof. Proof.

Loblaws has done more than talk about having competitive prices — we've proved it. Here's how:

- Using Canada's Food Guide, we created a nutritionally balanced menu for a family of four, then shopped that menu in ten different areas for three weeks monitored by an accounting firm. The results — "Loblaws prices are essentially the same as their major competitor."
- We then took a group of our major competitor's customers, and asked them to shop Loblaws. Quite contrary to what they believed, they found that Loblaws prices were as good as their supermarket.
- We then asked a firm of chartered accountants to compare, item for item, Loblaws prices with our major competitor. Out of 2,800 comparable items, the overwhelming majority, better than 2,200 were — yes you guessed it — identical.
- Competitive prices. It's a policy that Loblaws is committed to live by. Today. Tomorrow. Always. And every single week, we put that policy on the line. The fact is, all major supermarket prices are pretty much the same. But all supermarkets are not. At Loblaws, we offer 'more'. Lots more. So what are you waiting for?
