UNIONVILLE — Unionville's Beta Sigma Phi sorority, Epsilon XI chapter members, celebrated the 45th anniversary of their founding at a dinner last Thursday.

The event was held at Thornhill Golf and Country Club.

This same celebration took place in 24 countries in which the organization of 250,000 members and 12,000 chapters exists. The organization is not connected with any school and is non-political and non-sectarian. The keynote of Beta Sigma Phi is friendship.

Internationally, chapters have created three special funds.

These are the international loan fund through which members help one another, the international endowment fund through which $1,141,924 have been donated to cancer research, cystic fibrosis, homes for underprivileged children and many other causes, and the exemplar fund which helps support Literacy Village in India.

Epsilon XI this year have donated a flag to the Girl Guides of Unionville, a coffee urn to Markham Lodge and will be presenting a $200 student award.

The chapter's Girl of the Year, Elizabeth Stone, who did an excellent job on the ways and means committee was congratulated for "putting it all together".

Church holds tea

Box Grove United Church is holding its Spring Dessert Tea today (Wednesday) at 1 p.m.

Coffee, tea, and all kinds of fancy desserts are being served at a cost of $1.50 per person.

Guest speaker is Charlotte Erichsen-Brown, an expert on the subject of herbs and spices and their uses.

Telethon results

The recent Parade of Stars telethon on CITY-TV benefited Participation House projects in the area.

The show was hosted by that station's popular personality, Gene Taylor.

Bob Hesketh and Bobby Curtola were among other well-known entertainers.

More than $300,000 was pledged to benefit Participation House projects in Markham — Unionville, Richmond Hill, Toronto, and nearby areas.

Funds will also be used to develop centres in Bradford, Oshawa, and Toronto.

A fund-raising White Elephant sale was held for its second year at Participation House Saturday.

The bazaar ran from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m. and was a great success in raising money for the centre's operational costs.

Crafts made by the people in residence were up for sale, along with various items donated by helpful area residents.

Plants were sold which had been grown in the greenhouses of Participation House.
