Learning disabilities

MARKHAM — Markham Family Life Centre and York County Board of Education are sponsoring a special conference May 29 for those interested in helping children with learning difficulties. The theme is Pulling Together to Help the Child and keynote speaker is Dr. G.A.V. Morgan, director of the Centre for educational difficulties, University of Guelph. Parents, teachers, the judiciary, professionals and citizens interested in helping the exceptional student are all welcome. For further information call the Markham Family Life Centre, 294-2371, or contact your local school principal.

Bird watching

KLEINBURG — Peter Hertz, Metro naturalist and author of The Toronto Bird Finding Guide, conducts a 2-hour tour along the Humber River south of Kleinburg at the Kortright Centre for Conservation Sunday at 10 a.m. Highlight of the Get to Know Some Birds tour will be a visit to the wildlife planting demonstration area. This is a Metro Conservation Authority park with the usual $2 parking fee. The centre is two miles west of Highway 400, south of Major Mackenzie Drive, on Pine Valley Drive.

Seniors' hobbies

RICHMOND HILL — Copper tooling, stamp collections, woodwork, artwork, crochet, embroidery, quilting and knitting are just some of the items that will be on display when Richmond Hill Senior Citizens' Club 35 holds its hobby show. The event will be held at the clubroom, 10149 Yonge St., June 8 from 1:30 until 4 p.m. Members will be setting up exhibits at 10 a.m. At 3 p.m., the club will formally present a cheque for $1,000 towards York Central Hospital's building fund. The public is invited to attend. Afternoon tea will be served. There will be no admission charge.

York stargazing

DOWNSVIEW — Throughout spring and summer York U science faculty is holding free public stargazing sessions Wednesday evenings at the twin astronomical observatories on the main campus, Keele St. and Steeles Ave., south of the Vaughan town boundary. The two-hour sessions start immediately after dusk. On overcast evenings there are special programs, including demonstrations and slide presentations.

McKeough speaking

AURORA — Darcy McKeough, treasurer of the York County Board of Education, will be the guest speaker at the official opening of the new joint administration offices for the Town of Aurora and York County Board of Education. The opening will be held June 7, with an open house at 7 p.m., and the ceremony at 8.

Exhibit sculpture

THORNHILL — An exhibit of metal sculptures by David Reppen continues at Gallery Thornlea until Friday. The gallery, a community-oriented, school art gallery, is located on the cafeteria stage of Thornlea Secondary School, 8075 Bayview Ave. It is open Monday through Friday from 11:15 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., and Monday and Wednesdays from 5 until 9 p.m.

Non-profit organizations planning programs of interest to readers in Southern York may submit items for this column to Social Editor Margaret Lade, "The Liberal", 10101 Yonge Street, Richmond Hill, 884-8177 or 881-3373. Deadline is 5 p.m. on Friday.

Family and church

By Fr. Frank Robinson
Our Lady Queen of the World Church
Richmond Hill

Father Robinson
...greatest role

"The family which prays together, stays together."

"The family is the basic unit of society."

"You never get a clean bird out of a dirty nest."

Our culture is filled to overflowing with such remarks about the family.

In our family my father owned a greyhound, and would go hunting on Saturdays for jack rabbits.

The object of the day was to see the race between the dog and the hare.

More often than not, the rabbit would be saved by a bush for the dogs went by sight and not by smell.

My point is that the dog would sleep all week, but on Saturdays he would be up and at it.

He some way knew when Saturdays came around.

If "dumb" animals can be so affected by habits how much more young humans.

The infant a few weeks old is an intelligent creature of God.

The routine in his home is there but daddy's are not.

Comes Saturday, both pairs of hands are there.

hated for the church. It is not because he is bad, it is because he is natural.

Much better if parents take children in privately to God's house and explain things to them.

The Bible, the stained glass windows, the organ, all these are sources of wonder and awe to the child.

However, once again, it lasts only for a few moments, the length of time he plays with any Religion must always be an enjoyable experience. The teachings of Jesus must be given them in children's proportions.

Subjecting children to adult worship is part of the reason for our vacant pews today.

Church conference

TORONTO — The rapid increase in the use of alcoholic beverages, plus the consequences of over-population and pollution in the world, will be among the issues to be discussed at the annual meeting of the Toronto Conference of the United Church of Canada at Trent University in Peterboro, May 26 to 28.

More than 500 delegates from 300 churches from

from the churches

A recent survey indicated that 90 per cent of the people attending church today were taken there as children.

Once again, examples is the best of all teachers, in particular when given by the father.

Being the strong, muscular member of the household to whom the children always look with awe, carries with it great influences.

When he is seen to bow the head and bend the knees by his her worshippers, he is playing the greatest role of his career.

While holding his new born child in the baptismal rite, the father has this prayer said over him. "God is the giver of all life, human and divine. May He bless the father of this child. He and his wife will be the first teachers of their child in the ways of faith. May they be also the best of teachers, bearing witness to the faith by what they do and say, in Christ Jesus, our Lord. Amen."

Jackpot

RICHMOND HILL — Luck struck twice at last week's bingo night at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church.

The jackpot, which has been accumulating for four weeks, was split between two local residents.

Winners were Audrey Durand and Joseph McBain, who pocketed $500 each.

More than 200 people attended the event.

Bingo games are held every Tuesday, beginning at 8 p.m. in the church hall, Dunlop Street.

Yukon cleric Thornhill guest

THORNHILL — "Outreach shares with the neighbor, parish, diocese, Canada and the world. You can't go on living as a spiritual organization if all your love is only within yourself."

This, says Nancy Hyde, is the main aim of the Anglican Church of Canada's Outreach program. In conjunction with a national Outreach project chosen locally, Rev. Dan Sargent of the Diocese of the Yukon will be guest speaker at the 10:30 a.m. worship service Sunday at Holy Trinity Anglican Church, Thornhill.

Many needs

The needs of this diocese are many, says Mrs. Hyde, a member of Holy Trinity's publicity and communications committee.

For the people who live there, day-to-day necessities may result in hardship.

The cost of staples are "exorbitant," and short-term residents such as oil field workers, "create some turmoil" in the lives of the Indian population, she explains.

Because settlements are widely scattered, there are transportation difficulties.

3 region churches

Concentration on a program for the Arctic was chosen by Anglican churches in Unionville, Markham and Stouffville.

Among special plans for Sunday are a display of photographs, courtesy of Winifred Marsh, Holy Trinity's representative on the Outreach Joint Action committee; a coffee hour visit with Rev. Sargent, and a stage display, prepared by Sunday School children, depicting a Yukon scene.
