

Hill Belles get to 'A' ball finals

Coming up for air

Jay Branch of the Richmond Hill Aquatic Club comes up for air here before getting back in race at the weekend's big local swim meet. The locals did pretty good, too.

Two-day swim meet termed 'big' success

RICHMOND HILL — Richmond Hill Aquatic Club's Annual two day B meet was a spectacular success, attracting over 1400 entries from 18 other clubs.

Hill swimmers were more than good hosts as they also won their fair share of gold, silver and bronze medals, and the High Points Trophy.

Gordie Wood got a gold in the 200 metres freestyle event for boys 11 and 12 with his sister Karen narrowly missing two golds when she swam outside B times to get a certificate in the 50 metres fly and Individual Medley events for girls 10 and under. A great family effort.

Rod Graham swam his best ever times to notch his first gold with a smashing 100 metres freestyle race for boys 13-14 years of age. He also got a bronze in the 100 metres IM and a silver in the 100 metres fly. Leslie Foord also won a gold with a great backstroke effort in the 50 metres backstroke race for girls 10 and under.

ning two silver medals for the 100 metres freestyle and breaststroke events. Bonnie Branch continued to keep the Hillers in the medals line up when she got a silver medal for the 200 metres Individual Medley.

Bonnie also got a bronze when she placed third in the 100 metres freestyle for girls 13-14 years of age and a certificate for the 100 metres fly.

Steve Davey got the club's fourth A certificate when he competed in the senior breaststroke 100 metres event.

When the points were totalled up following the gruelling two day event, it was appropriately enough, a Hill swimmer who came out tops in his age group, Rodney Graham, in his first year with the club, was the winner of the High Points Trophy — a good way to end a great meet.

The fact that Hill swimmers won so many medals is also a tribute to the coaching methods of coach John Ciniglio and his assistant Glenna Fee. The season officially ends next Sunday with the last Pennant Meet.

RICHMOND HILL — The Richmond Hill Bell Canada Novice Girls made it all the way to the 'A' finals in their own annual softball tournament here Saturday before bowing out to Burlington.

The same Burlington went on to meet the Chinguacousy Sweeties in the grand championship game under the lights at the town park and were defeated in a seesaw battle.

Chinguacousy previously won the 'B' championship.

Richmond Hill put up a fine showing winning the first two games by 18-5 over Bridlewood and 10-0 over another Chinguacousy team, the Belles.

Enter Burlington Then along came Burlington in the 'A' series and that club jumped on Karen McInnis and Kathy Chepelsky for five big runs in the first inning.

The Hill girls settled down after that and it was a battle through the next four innings with each team counting two runs.

5-run rally

Richmond Hill rallied for five runs in the bottom of the sixth to tie the game at 7-7. Hits by Kathy Chepelsky, Janie Stephenson, Rhonda MacInnis, and Patti O'Sullivan combined with walks to Susie McWatt, Kathy Trumbull and Jan Alder, plus an error, allowed the Hill girls to make it a new ballgame.

Each team scored two runs in the seventh. For the Belles it was Heather Moore singling and scoring on Susie McWatt's triple followed by a Kathy Chepelsky single which scored Susie.

Extra inning

After one extra inning of scoreless ball the Burlington club scored three runs with one out in the top of the ninth three consecutive hits and a sacrifice to win the game.

Richmond Hill opened their tournament with an 18-5 drubbing of Bridlewood in a game called after four and a half innings on the 10-run lead rule.

The Belles had jumped into an early 6-0 lead after two innings and just kept rolling.

Karen McInnis pitched three superb innings before tiring as Kathy Chepelsky came in to finish off the fourth and fifth innings.

Big gun for the Belles was Susie McWatt with a homer, triple and double in four times at bat.

Big romp

The Chinguacousy 10-0 romp was sweet revenge for Richmond Hill who had been trounced by the same team in a round robin tourney the week before by 22-1.

Different story this time out.

Pam MacInnis pitched four innings allowing only one hit with Kathy Chepelsky coming on to throw no-hit ball for in the 10-run game called via the 10-run rule.

Richmond Hill jumped into a 4-0 in the first on hits by Kathy Chepelsky and Susie McWatt, a walk to Debbie Ceballo and a Chinguacousy error on a drive to right field by Janie Stephenson.

They added two more in the third on hits by Heather Moore and Janie Stephenson and some excellent base running.

Richmond Hill put the score out of reach in the fifth on hits by Janie Stephenson, Heather Moore, Wendy Palmer, and a homerun blast by Terry Wells.

The Richmond Hill lineup comprised Debbie Ceballo, Karen Wells, Marie McLean, Karen McInnis, Patti O'Sullivan, Kathy Trumbull, Pam MacInnis, Wendy Palmer, Jan Alder, Terry Wells, Susie McWatt, Janie Stephenson, Heather Moore, Kathy Chepelsky, Rhonda MacInnis.

Coaches are Pat O'Sullivan and Al Alder. Other teams in the tournament included Owen Sound, Brampton, and Cedar Hill.

Novices range from 11 to 12 years of age.

Boyd Park open Sun.

KLEINBURG — Boyd Conservation Field Centre, on the banks of the Humber River Valley, will be open for public viewing Sunday from 2:30-4:30 p.m.

The Boyd centre is a 2,100-acre outdoor classroom for students and adults, established as a co-operative project of the Metro Toronto and Region Conservation Authority and area school boards.

The centre is situated three-fourths of a mile north of the entrance to Boyd Conservation Area, off Islington Avenue.

Big community night has prizes, prizes

RICHMOND HILL — The first annual Community Sports Night, draw and dance, will be held June 18 at Richmond Hill Arena.
