250 at Roselawn school music night

RICHMOND HILL — Roselawn Public School, Carrville Road, held their annual music night Thursday in the school auditorium.

John Hincks, principal, called the event a success and said 250 parents attended.

"The highlight of the evening was a presentation of rhythmic dancing. The children painted themselves with fluorescent paint and we used black lights to floodlight the stage", he said.

Show night at Jefferson

RICHMOND HILL — It was "show night" on June 1 and 2 at Jefferson Public School, 11570 Yonge Street.

Eighty children from Grades 3, 4, 5, and 6 under the direction of Margaret Morphy, a Grade 1 teacher, and Harvey Krebs, a Grade 5 and 6 teacher presented the operetta "Tom Sawyer" to 200 parents and friends each evening.

"For children in Grades 3 to 6, I really think they did a fantastic job", Mrs. Morphy said.

The main lead players in the production were Dave Leuschner as Tom Sawyer, Steve Rumble as Huck Finn, Diana Ceccaaci as Becky, Keith Ball as Joe Harper, Margaret Engelbert as Aunt Polly and Leslie Nigh as Amy Lawrence.

Musical accompaniment was provided by pupil parent, Lois Gee.

Band concert tonight at Crosby Heights

RICHMOND HILL — Crosby Heights Senior Public School bands from Grade 7 and 8 will present a concert in the school auditorium tonight (Wednesday) at 8 p.m.

In April the bands were awarded a first prize at the Newmarket Lions' Club music festival.

Sheilagh Harris, school librarian, is managing the ticket sales for the concert and said to date ticket sales are well over 300.

"We expect an attendance of 300 to 400 people and just pray it won't be too hot", she said.

Each band will present eight different selections under conductor Jim Morrison, school bandmaster.

The concert is intended to give parents and friends a chance to hear the bands, to raise funds to purchase instruments and to acknowledge the support of the Newmarket Citizen's Band who have loaned instruments to the Crosby school students.
