THORNHILL — The manner of screening volunteers, and the ways in which schools, police and parents co-operate to make block parent programs work were topics at a recent meeting at Bayview Fairways Public School.

Y.R.P. Constable Douglas Young attended the meeting and answered questions about the role of police.

This program, which has worked successfully in the London area for a number of years, entails simple, common sense rules.

For example it is imperative that the school be notified before 9.30 a.m. if your child will not be attending that day.

The program was instituted in London after a little boy, the son of working parents, was abducted.

The school staff presumed the child was home sick, and the parents, who had seen him safely on his way to school, presumed the child was at school.

By the time it was realized that the child was missing, several hours had elapsed and the child was found dead.

It is hoped that there is no need to be anxious that a similar tragedy will occur.

Rather, the Block Parent program is set up primarily to deal with more mundane things like a fainting spell or a twisted ankle, and with a general close contact between parents, school, police and children.

Volunteers, who need not be parents of school children, are asked to obtain a form from Lynda Chapman, 19 King's Inn Trail, 889-4986.

Forms will be checked by York Regional Police. It is expected this program will be fully functional by September.

District camp
5th Thornhill Scouts attended a district camp at Greenwood Conservation Area in mid-June.

One of their patrols won the trophy for accumulating the most points in weekend competitions.

5th Thornhill Venturer Company attended this camp to work as security people, first aid personnel and cooks for district staff.

"B" Colony Beavers

development has slowed, and it is difficult to judge how many pupils may be attending Bayview Fairways Public School. To date, 62 children have been enrolled in kindergarten and 38 Grade 6 pupils eligible to attend Woodlands Senior Public School in the fall.

Earlier this month, pupils camped at Silbalds' Point Provincial Park with their teachers Mr. Thomas, Mrs. Penny and Mr. Gordon Penrose, master science teacher.

Campers slept in tents, a first for many of the children. They had learned the intricacies of putting up a tent at school before the trip.

The children had some fitness training while at camp, as well as orienteering, nature study, historical walks, scavenger hunts, and learning how to construct and throw boomerangs. The camp, according to the students, was an enormous success; everyone, including leaders, arrived back safely, sunburned and exhausted.

The Grade 4 class of Mr. Pillar and the special class of Mrs. Forrester camped at Elora Gorge last week.

Techniques of map-making were taught. A nature hike included identifying trees and sketching them.

Children will try to improve creative writing skills by describing their activities while at camp.

Arts school
Children between the ages of 6 and 13 are invited to join the summer school of the arts to be conducted at the Thornhill Community Centre in four, two-week sessions. This program, run by Markham parks and recreation department will provide children with experiences in music, drama and crafts every day.

Hours are 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. and bus service is included in the $35 fee for a two-week session. Call 297-1900 for further information.

Camp Chimo
There are still a few openings for day campers at Markham Parks Camp Chimo. Call 297-1900 for further information. Buses pick up the children throughout the area so transportation is not a problem.

For children who will be 4 years by Dec. 31, there are a few openings at German Mills Co-op Nursery School. The openings are in the afternoon class. Call Gloria Fredricks 881-0378 for further information.

Do you have a will?

What should you will say? That's for you to decide, together with whoever draws it up.

To help you give thought in advance to some of the questions that your lawyer (or alternatively in Quebec, your notary) will ask, Sun Life of Canada has prepared a booklet that can assist you in your thinking. It's called "Planning Your Will" and it's yours for the asking.

To get your copy, simply call me or complete and mail the coupon below.

Please show me how life insurance can guarantee the realization of my plans for my family's security, and be sure to bring my copy of "Planning Your Will".
