

Local students are among Humber College graduates

REXDALE — Thirteen Richmond Hill students and four from Thornhill are among this year's 1,500 graduates of Humber College of Applied Arts and Technology.

The local students and their field of study are: Richmond Hill: Pam Bryden, mental retardation counselling; Kim Williams, law enforcement; Cynthia Oakley, travel and tourism; Sydney Woodward, architectural technology; Barbara Whillans, advertising and graphic design; Roger Willock, college preparatory; Loraine Laplante, law enforcement; Terese Connolly, travel and tourism; Vikki Gething, medical records secretary; Lawrence Lalonde, funeral service; Ian Smith, advertising and graphic design; Susan Roberta Ball, early childhood education; Rick Szumlanski, ambulance and emergency care.

Thornhill: Cheryl Keyworth, community studies; Julie Eastwood, recreation leadership; Chris Stephenson, funeral service; Dennis Jones, business management.

Contracts approved

NEWMARKET — Separate salary agreements between York regional council and both union and non-union employees were approved by council in an in-camera session last week.

The union — Local 1953 contract, (Canadian Union of Public Employees — (CUPE) covers office, clerical, technical, outside and land division employees, and calls for an increase of 10.1 per cent, including fringe benefits.

Non-union employees were divided into five groups and received a low of 4.75 per cent raise to a high of 9.7 per cent.

Both contracts, which were approved beforehand by each group before presentation to council, make the raises retroactive to January 1 of this year.
