

Lightning kills water skier

YORK REGION — A man was killed when struck by lightning and two buildings sustained extensive damage in Sunday's storm throughout the region.

In a bizarre happening at Elmhurst Beach at Keswick on Lake Simcoe, lightning struck down John Beauvais, 23, of Eastdale Avenue, Toronto, while he was water skiing.

Beauvais was dead on arrival at York County Hospital.

A lightning bolt caused

$15,000 damage to the home of Arthur Gray, Windon Drive, Whitchurch-Stouffville, when it struck about 12:30 a.m.

At Maryvale Farms, Sutton Road, Newmarket, damage when it hit the roof of one of the buildings there about 1:50 a.m.

Deaths of husband, wife were nearly simultaneous

AURORA — Death came suddenly and without compassion to an elderly Toronto couple Sunday at Musselman's Lake.

According to police, the couple, aged 69 and 70, table, and almost immediately afterwards her husband collapsed in the living room.

Attempts to revive the two were unsuccessful.

Police did not release their names.
