

Aurora mayor after region chairmanship?

AURORA — Is Mayor Evelyn Buck setting her sights on the office of York Region chairman?
Town councillor Bob Roth thinks so but he says he'll do everything in his power to see that it doesn't happen.
In a press release this week, Roth accused Buck of trying to "pressure" Region Chairman Garfield Wright out of office so she can be named chairman before the December civic elections.
Roth bitterly rebuked the mayor for comments she made about Wright in a press interview last week. She had called Wright "totally ineffective" and demanded his immediate resignation.

Buck faces a December challenge from Councillor George Timpson, who topped the polls in the 1974 vote.
In an interview after he issued his news release Monday, Roth said Buck had told him "she wouldn't mind" having the job of regional chairman.
She has said the same thing to "more than one person" over the past year, he said in his news release.
"I feel that the original support she had when she was elected in 1974 has eroded substantially, and I think she is reluctant to take the chance (in an election)," Roth said.
