

Top holstein

Don-Augur extra special, a purebred Holstein cow bred by Donald J. Augur of Northford, Conn., and now owned by Bellvue Farm, Willowdale and Romandale Farms of Unionville has recently won the classification

"Excellent." This is the highest classification for body conformation given to a Holstein. Proudly displaying the cow are Anicka and David Roman, daughter and son of farm owner Stephen Roman.

Vandals hit parked cars

YORK REGION — Two cars parked at the rear of Tommy's Drive-In, Wellington Street West in Markham, failed to drive out after vandals got through with them last week.

The vandals caused $400 damage each to the vehicles owned by George Rombis and Mike Nastamagos of the drive-in, after they poured sugar down the oil filter cap of the first car and sugar into the gas tank of the second. Police are seeking two suspects.

Bulldozer, too

Equally devastated was a bulldozer, belonging to SF Excavating in Thornhill.

The machine, which was parked on Orchard Heights Boulevard in Aurora from July 30 to Aug. 3, had its gauges smashed and dirt poured down its crankcase.

Damage amounted to $1,000.

Fore!

Pleasure Park golf club, Highways 7 and 400 on Vaughan, was hit twice in two evenings during the week.

The first time about $40 in cash was taken from two tills, while the second appearance netted thieves, who forced open two pinball machines, $360.

In both cases an alarm was sounded.

Thieves also managed to hit the pinball machines at Dufferin driving range in Concord. There, they not only made off with $120, but caused $350 damage to the machines.

Area thefts

Some thefts around the Atco Inc. (Eastern), 16th Avenue, Richmond Hill, reported the theft of an upright freezer and fridge from a rental kitchen trailer at the rear of its premises; 20 sheets of plywood valued at $230, were taken from a house under construction, belonging to John Di Carlo of Hillview Drive, Richmond Hill, at Ellis Street in Nobleton; an unlocked drawer at Farm Fresh Market, Yonge Street, Richmond Hill, netted somebody $1,400; Zweibucken Horse Farm, Highway 48, Whitechurch - Stoffville, lost four saddles and five bridles to thieves.
