Seat belts saved a life

NEWMARKET—Using his seat belt probably saved the life of Vincent Morgan, 46, of Whitchurch-Stouffville, when his car turned over six miles east of here last week, York regional police said.
The accident occurred when Morgan lost control of his east-bound vehicle and it skidded 15 feet over an embankment and rolled over, police said.
Morgan was trapped in his car and had to be cut free of his seat belts by a passing motorist.
After being treated at York County Hospital for bruises, he was released.
