Reading Olympics
Six-year-old Debbie-Lyn Tyni had to read 11 books to be a winner in the Thornhill Community Library's reading Olympics project. Debbie-Lyn, the youngest winner, who lives at 35 Stornoway Cres., was awarded enough travel miles for each book to make a mythical trip to Montreal. See story, P.C1.

Study handicapped employment chance

RICHMOND HILL — A new research project devoted to the study of employment of the handicapped has begun in York region.
Under the auspices of the Canada Manpower, the $9,000 Outreach program will survey handicapped individuals in York region, as well as employers and agencies responsible for finding work for the handicapped.
Projected completion date for the project is Nov. 9 when management consultant, Jamal Hassan says that research should produce three different portraits of the situation in the region and incongruities in those portraits should be explained.
"We are using a very broad definition of the term handicapped to encompass physical, mental or social handicaps," Mr. Hassan explained.
Handicapped individuals wishing to participate in the study may contact Mr. Hassan at 727-1501 or 960-0889.

Light plane crash at Lake Wilcox

LAKE WILCOX — A Willowdale man and his passenger escaped injury when the plane in which they were flying, crashed at Lake Wilcox, Monday afternoon.
Police said that Clifford McKee of Shaughnessy Boulevard, flipped his aircraft over after making a left turn, while coming in for a landing on the lake.
Damage to the plane was estimated at $10,000.
Richmond Hill Fire Department attended at the scene. The two men were pulled from the water by John Holman of Lakeland Cres., who had seen them come in from his lakefront property.
The department was also called on Monday evening to put out a fire at the apartment of Walter Sauve, Cedar Ave., Richmond Hill.
The fire, which was of undetermined origin, broke out in the master bedroom, completely gutting the latter and causing extensive smoke damage to the rest of the flat.
Damage was estimated at between $6,000 and $7,000.
Short circuit
A short circuit in an adding machine at Spectrum Educational Supply Ltd., Denison St., Markham, is believed to have been behind a fire there last week.
The fire, which was eventually extinguished by Markham Fire Department, activated a sprinkler, which, in turn, caused extensive damage to other electronic equipment.

Markham 'clean' on flooding

THORNHILL — Some townhouse owners in the Don Mills Road and Steeles Avenue area are considering suing four municipalities because of flooding in their homes.
Insurance companies will not normally pay for damage caused by flooding and Barry Fisher, vice-president of York Condominium Corporation No. 148 representing 204 owners, says the executive is considering a lawsuit to recover damages.
The recent flooding resulted from run-off from the shopping mall under construction just north of Steeles in Markham.
The residents want a barrier built to hold back the water until storm sewer construction along Steeles Avenue is completed.
Town Engineer Dipen Mukherjee said "Markham is clean. Steeles is a metro road and we oversized our sewers".
There is an argument with North York over whether the borough should take the surface run-off into its system.
The municipalities the condominium may sue are North York, Markham, Metro Toronto and the region of York, as well as the provincial government.

Vandals rip through house

MARKHAM — The home of Robert Campbell of Walkerton Rd., wasn't listed among the victims of the recent tornado in the area, but that's only because the elements were a bit different.
A 17-foot Sunray boat and trailer, valued at $9,000, were taken from a service station lot at Yonge St. in Thornhill.
The two are the property of Victor Eini, Thornhill.
Another Thornhill resident, Egils Tannis, Steeplevalley Rd., lost $7,000 worth of goods in a break-in at his home.
Other thefts: Thornhill — Norman Harris, Don Hill Trail, $1,300 in bonds, money and coin collections; Maureen Campbell, Quali Valley Dr., $1,000 in cash and stereo; Richmond Hill: Philip Schell, Leisure Lane, $135 cash and gloves; Andrew J. Beattie, Trayborn Ave., $600 worth of articles taken from car while parked in underground garage; Douglas Topliff, Crosby Ave., two gold watches, four gold rings and three gold broaches, valued at $1,200; Alan Chadwick, Victoria Square, Markham, $1,200 in household articles.

Loses thumb

CONCORD — Frank Fujus, 29, of Bathurst St., Willowdale, had to have his thumb amputated after being involved in an unusual accident at True Tech Equipment Ltd., Pelear Rd.
Police said the victim was working on a cylindrical grinder when his thumb got lodged in between a cylinder and a piece of metal, crushing it.
He was taken to York Finch Hospital, where the operation was performed.
In another industrial accident, Gabriel Mancuso, Sultana Ave., Toronto, was sent to hospital with injuries.
Police said that Mancuso, an employee at Richvale Block Co., was walking across the company yard when he was run over by a front end loader, backing across the yard.

Thieves busy

Thieves also were just as busy in the area.
