THORNHILL — Piano lessons in your home or our studio. We also have practise pianos available in our studio if you have no piano. We have someone teaching each day after school plus all day Saturday and Sunday. Our teachers are superbly qualified and have 18 years of proven success with our pupils, both in Royal Conservatory and popular works. Names of satisfied parents and pupils available upon request. If you want to give your child confidence by providing him or her one area where he or she will do outstandingly well, this is your opportunity. Our method gives every child individually programmed and attention to insure high achievement results. Your child will learn about the great composers and their music and relate it to the art and literature of each historical period, to give him or her a love and knowledge of music that will last a lifetime and give the kind of superior cultural education that cannot be obtained in public school. We guarantee results. For every hour they teach, our teachers do approximately 3 hours of work away from the lesson. All of our courses are pre-organized and planned, and then adapted and added to the individual child, and thus, plus the teacher's devotion, gentleness and kindness are what produce our pupils' stunning success. Last year alone our pupils won 176 music trophies and over $2500. in music scholarships. Have fun and share your child's enthusiasm and excitement as we help you discover together the wonderful world of music
