Fashion preview

What's new in fall fashions? The Heintzman House community centre in Thornhill is one place to find out, when the house's ladies auxiliary holds its Fashion Preview 1976-77 on Sept. 29 at 8 p.m. Shown at left, Gormley resident and Thornlea Secondary student Kristin Pindera models a wool flannel pant suit, while Elizabeth Cawthray of Willowdale shows a two-piece mohair sweater set and grey wool flannel pants. Fashions are by Elle Boutique, and the $2.50 admission price includes door prizes, dessert and coffee, Phone 889-9453.

Historical society will hold meeting on Monday

RICHMOND HILL — Richmond Hill Historical Society will hold its first meeting of the fall season next Monday at Richmond Hill public library, Wright Street, at 8 p.m.

All are invited to corn roast

RICHMOND HILL — Local Liberal Party members will take a brief recess from political concerns Saturday when they hold a corn roast, free to all, at the Richmond Hill Lions Club on Centre Street East.

It's sponsored by York North federal Liberals and their provincial counterparts in York Centre riding. It begins at 5 p.m.

The program will feature handicraft demonstrations by local artisans, who will also be instructing at the society's Burr House craft centre, Carrville Road, in early October.

There, 10-session, two-hour courses will be offered in pioneer handicrafts at a nominal fee. Classes will consist of a minimum of eight people.

All area residents interested in the project or other society activities are invited to attend the Monday meeting. Refreshments will be served.

Hill Navy league seeks members

RICHMOND HILL — The Navy League of Canada's Richmond Hill branch will begin its recruiting drive this month.

Later in the month they will hold displays and drills at Towne and Country Square, Hillcrest Mall and Upper Canada Mall.

The Richmond Hill branch has two troops, the Sea Cadets for ages 14 to 19 and the Navy League Cadets for ages 11-13.

The branch opened eight years ago and has the only cutless team operating in Canada. They are currently trying to raise $700 to outfit the 25-member team in navy whites.

Nursing home has open house

RICHMOND HILL — A wine and cheese party will be held at Country Place Nursing Home Sept. 18 from 2 to 4 p.m.

Country Place, on 18th Avenue east of Yonge Street, was opened in 1972 on 16 acres of land and has 100 residents living at the home.

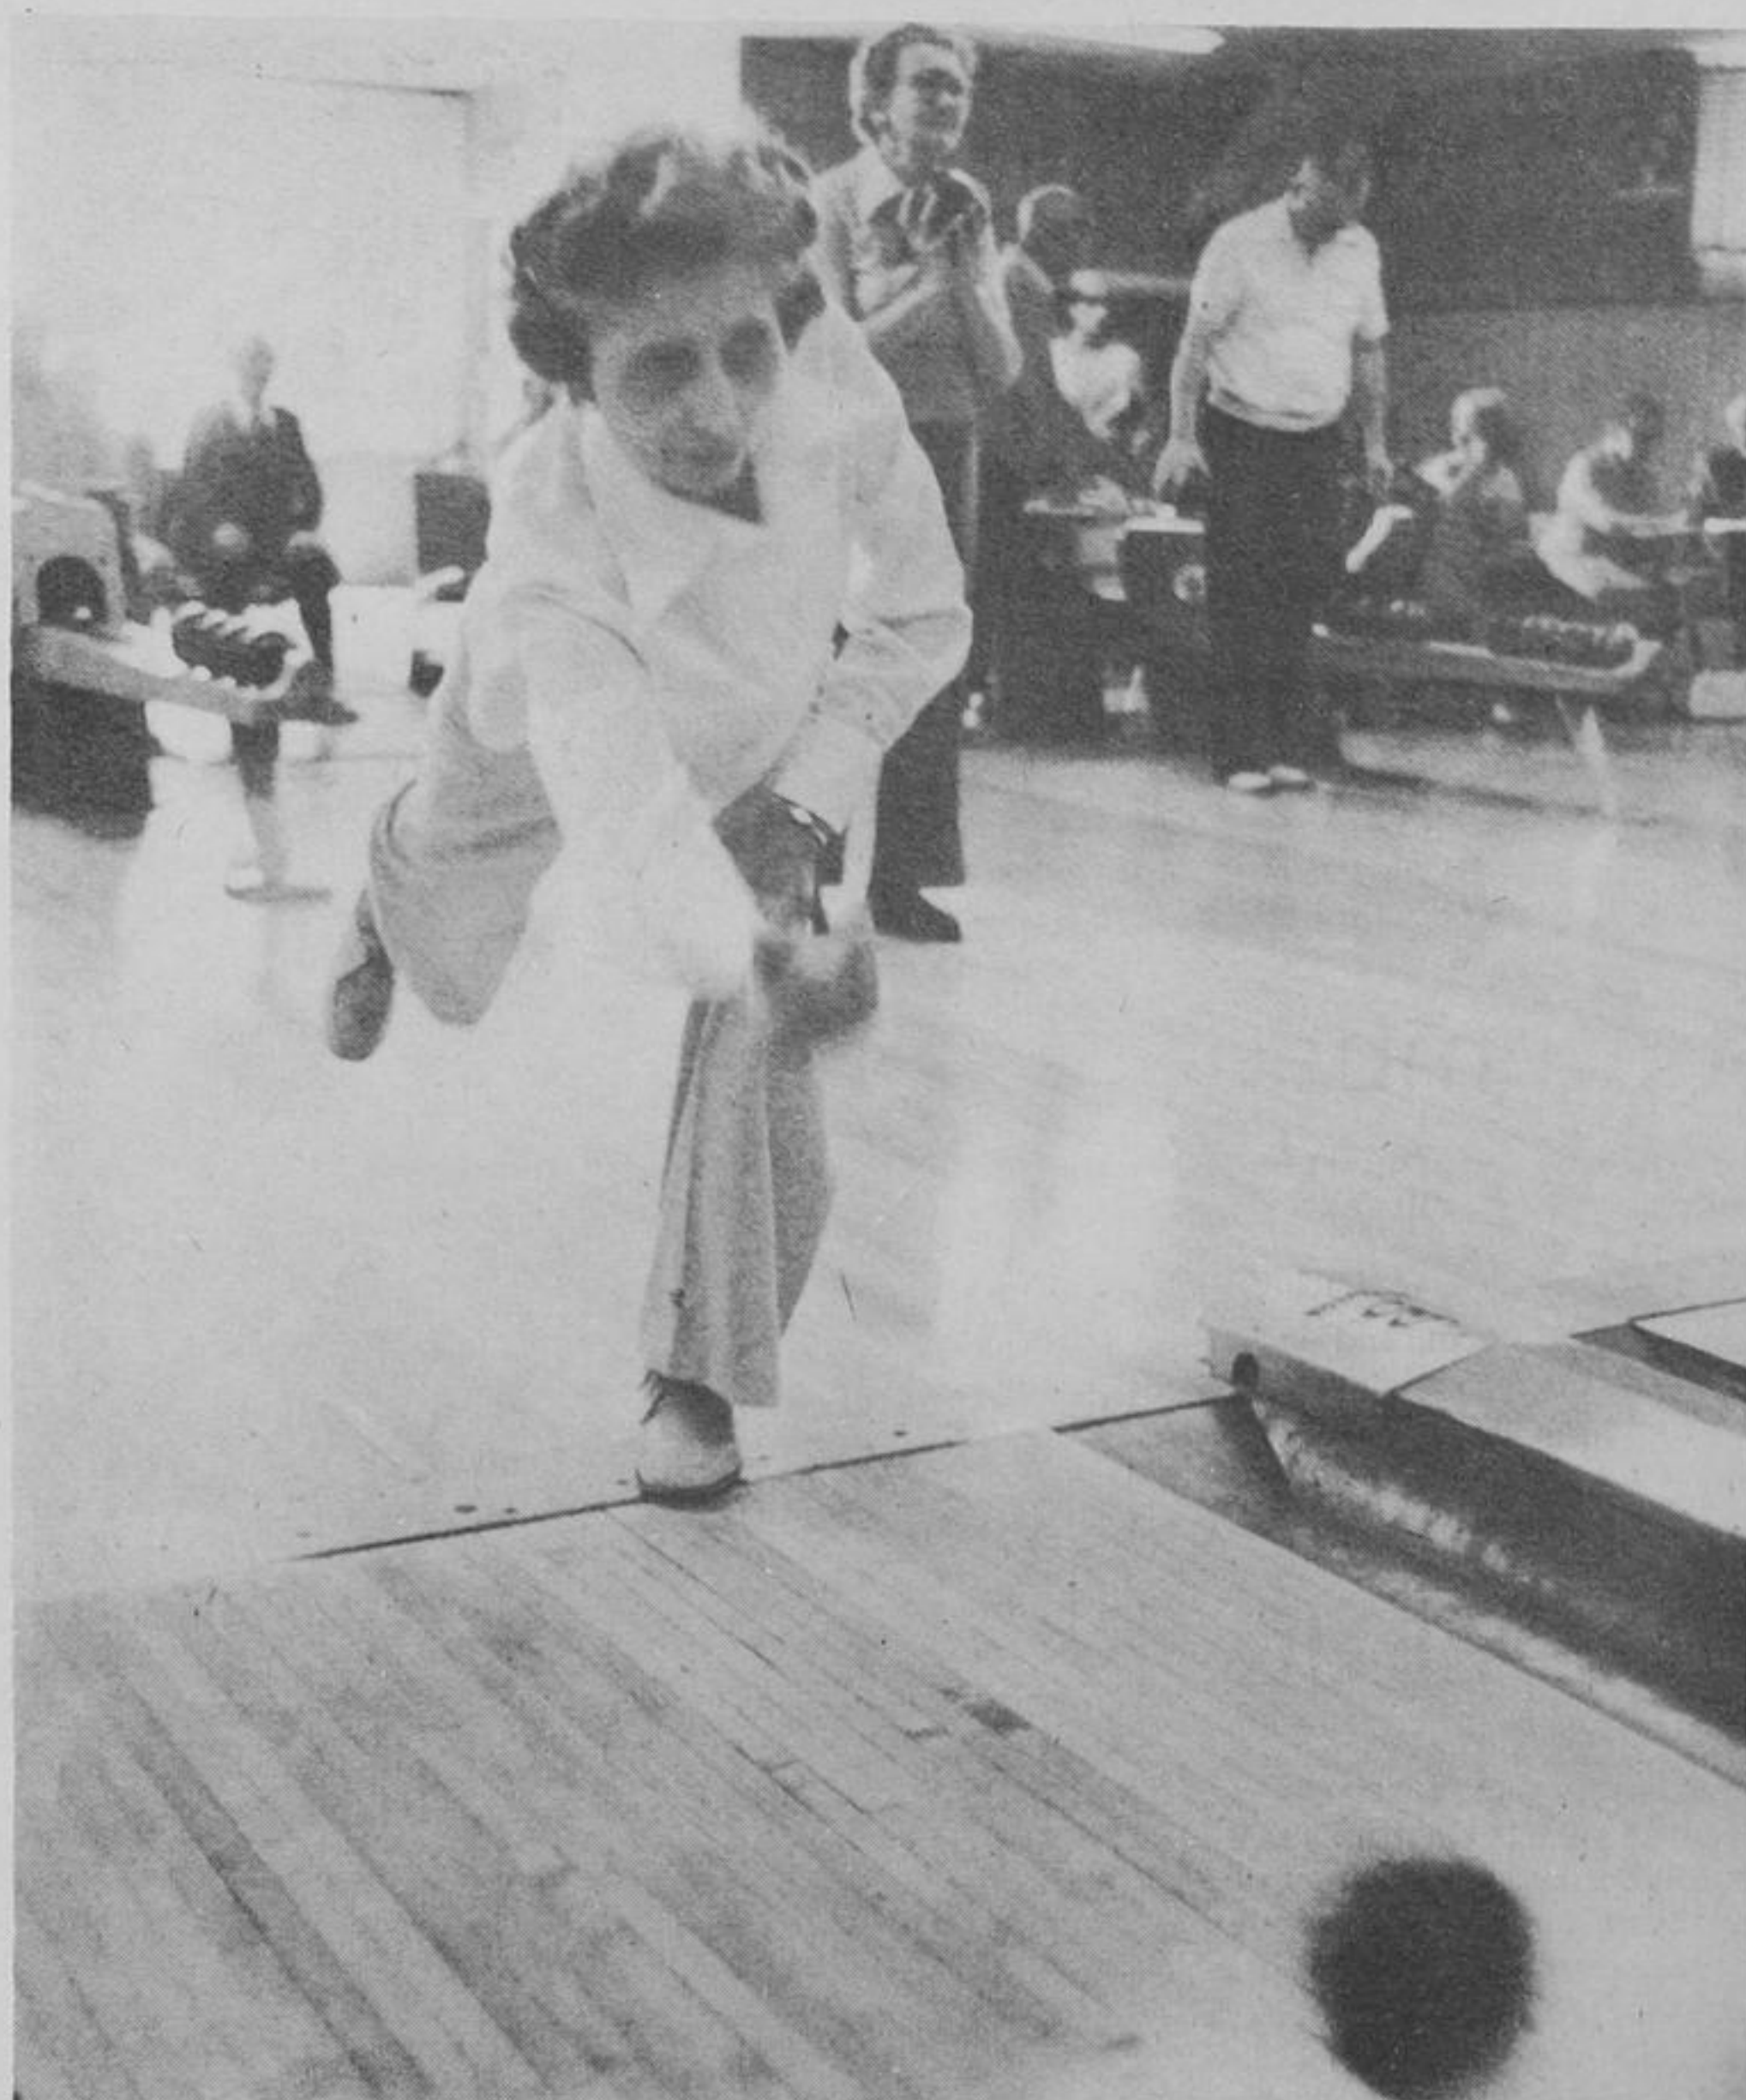

The wine and cheese party is part of the open house weekend planned to familiarize area residents with the home and to offer those interested in volunteer work an opportunity to view the facility.

Camera Club exhibits work

RICHMOND HILL — York Regional Camera Club presents a display now on view in the auditorium of the Richmond Hill Public Library on Wright Street.

On the upper floor of the library, a display of hand made stoneware, pottery jugs, vases, mugs and dishes has been arranged by the Kanas Studio of Richmond Hill.

Both displays are available for view during regular library hours.

Seniors go bowling

Richmond Hill senior citizens club has opened its fall season of bowling activity and last Friday's matches had a good turnout of about 60 bowlers. B. John and E. Masters were top scorers in men's and women's competitions, respectively. Shown in action in above photo is Ada Green of Richmond Hill.

Naturalists to meet Friday

RICHMOND HILL — Richmond Hill Naturalists open their 1976-77 season of meetings and field trips with an 8 p.m. meeting Friday at the Blue Flame room of Consumers Gas Company, 500 Elgin Mills Rd. East. Monte Richardson will speak on "Ontario Underwater," illustrated with his excellent underwater pictures.

His specialized photographic equipment will be on display prior to the meeting and he will be available to answer questions.

Richardson is an expert scuba diver with 23 years of experience in the sport, including a period as certified instructor to the University of Toronto Athletic Association. He was also associated during the mid-1960s with the late Mario Gatti in his submarine photographic adventures. The public is invited to attend.

A field trip on Saturday will be to Tiny Township — for information phone Ottelyn Addison, 884-2787.

Autumn reflections fashion show today

POTTAGEVILLE — Autumn Reflections fashion show will be held today Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Coxford. The date announced last week was incorrect.

The show is sponsored by the Girl Guides of Canada, Richmond Hill West District Association, and fashions will be presented by Warwick House. Refreshments will be served and tickets at $2 may be purchased at the door.
