

Dolls on display

Mrs. Tiggy-Winkle, one of the ever-popular characters from the children's books of Beatrix Potter, is the name of the little creature shown here — one of a variety of Potter-inspired dolls on display at Gallanough library, Brooke Street and Arnold Avenue, in Thornhill until the end of September. The dolls are from the collection of Rev. George French of Maple United Church. Pictured is staff librarian Judy Armstrong.

New principal named for school at Maple

MAPLE — The school year started with a new principal at George Bailey Public School.

He is Ted Woodger, who spent the last four years in Ballantrae, where his school was destroyed by fire and completely rebuilt.

He spent the previous two years as principal of Pleasantville Public School, the school where former Bailey principal Russell Urquhart transferred this fall.

He is also a former staff member at the Toronto Teachers College and taught previously in Southampton, St. Catharines, Simcoe and Etobicoke.

Mr. Woodger is married and has three children. They live in Richmond Hill and have spent a good deal of time at Maple Airport where they both earned their pilots licences and kept their small plane at the field until a few years ago.

ARTHRITIS MONTH
September is Arthritis month.

A coffee party for the canvassers was held at the home of Carol Flynn of Clemson Crescent last evening. This year, the Maple branch of CARS will have over fifty canvassers who will visit homes and businesses in our town and surrounding rural areas, in the last two weeks of September.

At the present time, Maple enjoys a reputation for a very high standard of giving compared to areas of the same size in the rest of Ontario.

If the volunteers are greeted as warmly as in previous years, the CARS objective of $1,600 will undoubtedly be met.

St. Stephens
The fall session of Sunday school began on September 12 at St.

Stephens Church.

Mrs. Mary Davis is a wonderful leader, but it isn't fair to let her carry the full burden. Why not volunteer to give a helping hand one Sunday a month? Telephone 832-2603 and say YES.

Walkathon

This Saturday, the sixth annual ten mile walkathon in support of the world wide work of the Canadian Bible Society will start at 9 a.m. This venture is sponsored by the Anglican, Lutheran, Presbyterian and United Churches of Maple.

The walkathon begins at the Community Hall, with stops at Teston United Church, St. Paul's Presbyterian and ending at St. Stephens Church.

The goal of $1,200 will go towards the purchase of a Bible van for Bolivia.

Registration

Guides, Brownies, Rangers, Cubs, Scouts and Venturers are asked to register on Thursday between 6:30 and 8:30 p.m.

A corn roast, pop included, will be held at that time, also at the Cub Hall (adjacent to the Community Centre).

Application forms have been distributed to the schools but will be available that night. Registration fee is $7.50.

Doris McCallum, Brownie leader, says that due to the large number of girls interested in Brownies, last year's members will be accepted before others. From then on it will be a first come, first in basis the night of registration.

Crafts show

On November 13-14, the Cubs and Scouts are holding a sale showing these wares. Anyone who is interested in participating, please call Bud McCannell at 832-1336 for further information. There are still two or three tables available for use.
