Hill man may be deported

RICHMOND HILL - Ian Jefferis, 31, of Richmond Hill, faces deportation to his native England, even though he's been in Canada since he was three years old.

At present, Jefferis is on parole until March, after serving time for robbery and assault.

"This is my home, my country. I don't know anyone in England. I'm Canadian, not an Englishman."

When it was pointed out he couldn't be deported if he had taken out Canadian citizenship, Jefferis said he always thought he was Canadian, because he grew up here.

years in jail. He was released in April on parole.

Langstaff girls win tournament

By Su Gipps, Rob Matthews, and Robert Edmanson
RICHMOND HILL - Sept. 25, Langstaff's Senior Girls' basketball team competed in the Referee's Tournament held at Huron Heights in Newmarket and WON!

The first game was won by default. Playing against Huron Heights in the second game, Langstaff defeated them by a 14-8 score. The championship game, played against Bayview, resulted in a 25-14 win for L.S.

Georgia Bay Golf Club Tournament, held at the Barrie Golf and Country Club, Langstaff entered four contestants who played quite well amid the windy, wet weather conditions.

UNDEFEATED!
A triple header was played against Williams on September 27. Our senior soccer team was victorious. Paul Denzel, our goalie, had a shut-out with a 1-0 score. John Bordignon was the scorer of Langstaff's goal.

nevertheless, so did Williams. The scoreless game was a shut-out for goalie Pete Beaumont. Unfortunately, our midjet team lost by a score of 5-2.

Hill midgets ousted

RICHMOND HILL - A six-run first inning spelled finis to the OASA hopes of the Richmond Hill Midgets last Wednesday night and blew them right out of the softball finals.

The two game final saw Moreland striking out 39 batters in the 22 innings he hurled on an average of nearly two per inning.

The line-up: Glen Moreland, pitcher; Doug Lewis, catcher; Phil Wood, first base; Dale Strang, second base; Bruce Noble, third base; Paul Philip, shortstop; Steve Madden, left fielder; Greg Walton, centrefield; Greg MacMillan, rightfield. Utility players were Randy Spensley, Ian Forsythe, Bill Logush.

The coaching staff of Wayne Burling and Sid Moreland extend thanks to the following players who gave it all they had and that they will continue in the game of fastball next year.

Moreland Stars
Richmond Hill ace Glen Moreland matched the Owen Sound hurler with both striking out 17 batters and walking two. All seven Owen Sound runs were unearned.

CIRCULATION DEPARTMENT PREPARES FOR POSTAL SHUTDOWN

A message to LIBERAL mail subscribers:
We are again facing a possible Post Office shutdown. If there is a disruption of more than 24 hours, which will extend past Thursday of the week, we plan on setting up pick-up depots in your area.

The depot will be with a local merchant, located as close as possible to the Post Office, and will be identified by a "LIBERAL PICK-UP DEPOT" sign in the store window.

You will simply give the depot your name and pick-up your paper. You will only be able to establish depots in our "local area", from Thornhill to Newmarket, and Unionville to Maple/King. All other subscribers will have their subscriptions extended by the number of weeks affected.
