

Block Parent program underway

Richmond Hill Block Parents and York regional police are gearing up to put into effect the Block Parent program here. Grade 3 pupils, pictured above, at Charles Howitt Public School in Richvale are being advised about the sign and its use by Wendy Dungey, a Block Parent Captain in the Richvale area and Constable Tom Peregrine of York regional police. Pupils are: Janice Porter, 7; Chris Hobbs, 8; Martin Runge, 8; and Missy Burnie 8. The Block Parent signs will be placed in participating neighborhoods this week as the program gets under

Bread making made easy

of making your own bread, Lorraine Flame Room of the Consumers' Gas with the bread included, of course! Company, 500 Elgin Mills Road East in Richmond Hill, Oct. 13 at 7:30 p.m.

by calling the gas company at 884-9105, "Bread Making Made Easy" fully ext. 313 describes the theme of the evening. Rummage sale care of flour, and the nutritional value of home made bread using specialty and Thornhill area Family Services

RICHMOND HILL-To show the ease flours and cereals will be discussed. Interesting and unusual pans can be Labelle, home economist with Robin used for baking breads. These will be Hood Multifoods, will demonstrate shown during the demonstration and techniques of bread making at the Blue offer an excellent suggestion for gifts-Complimentary tickets are available volunteers will hold a rummage sale Oct. 23 at St. Mary's Anglican Church from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m.

RICHMOND HILL - Richmond Hill

For pickup of articles for the sale call 889-4163 or 881-0537 or 884-9148.

Day care

en·la·rose

until October 29th, 1976.

PARKS AND RECREATIONS

D. HAMILTON, DIRECTOR

Extension 42.

DEPARTMENT

TOWN OF

RICHMOND HILL

Grants to

Organizations and Groups

Applications for grants to non-profit organizations and groups to carry out programs in both recreational and non-recreational areas for 1977 will be accepted

Application forms may be obtained from the

Finance Department, Municipal Offices,

10266 Yonge Street, or by calling 884-8101,

DEPARTMENT

FINANCE AND TREASURY

WM. A. RICE, TREASURER

RICHMOND HILL — The Richvale Day Care Centre now offers day care services for pre-schoolers one morning each week from 8:30 until noon. The items will be held and door prizes will centre requires volunteers for the in- be available.

south york region scheduled events

Parents get trained

training courses will be offered at North York libraries beginning this

PARENT EFFECTIVENESS TRAINING (P.E.T.) with instructor Sylvia Rosenberg starts at Willowdale library, Oct. 6 at 7:45

This eight-week course will stress parent-child communication based on co-operation and mutual respect. Pre-register at Willowdale library, 5126 Yonge Street. Fee is $20.00 plus book costs.

POSITIVE PARENTING begins at Hillcrest library Oct. 6 at 8:30

Through lectures, discussion, exercises, films and speakers, an educational psychologist from North East Jewish Community Services will guide parents in understanding development management.

The fee is $25.00 for eight weeks Pre-register at Hillcrest library, 5801 Leslie Street, north of Finch PARENTS AND TEENS, an eightweek course at Fairview library, looks at several important aspects of parent-teen relationships including independence, sex and dating, education and money management. The program begins Oct. 7 at 8:30 p.m. Phone the North East Jewish Community Services at 493-8866 for registration information. The fee is $25.00 per person.

Antique sale

DOWNSVIEW - A sale of antique silver, china and furniture is being held Nov. 7.

It is sponsored by the Downsview Study Branch of National Council of Jewish Women of Canada, Toronto Section, at the Council House, 4700 Bathurst Street Willowdale, from 11:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

There will also be a sale of art including oils, watercolors, lithos and sculptures. A display of plants and crafts will also be available to be purchased by the public.

A special feature will be signed prints by Toller Cranston and Andy Donato. Tickets are $1.00 and are available at the door.

Proceeds are to be donated to National Council of Jewish Women of Canada, Toronto Section.

tegrated program at 160 Avenue Road. For further information call Hannah Rubenstein at 883-1279.

Coin show

RICHMOND HILL - The Richmond Hill Coin Club is having its 12th annual show at the Hillcrest Mall Oct. 9 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Canadian and Foreign coins will be on display and 20 dealers from the surrounding area will be on hand to buy or sell coins and answer questions. A raffle of numismatic and other

Credit talks

TORONTO - The Toronto Credit Women-International will hold a dinner meeting at the Royal York Hotel Oct. 27 beginning with a social hour at 5 p.m.

Guest speaker for the evening will be North York mayor, Mel Lastman. Reservations at $14 per person can be made in advance by calling 486-

Credit Women-International is a non-profit educational association of 14,000 members whose purpose is to develop a closer contact among people in credit and to stimulate education in the practice and procedures of credit granting.

Church fair

WILLOWDALE - St. Patrick's Anglican Heritage Fair will be held Oct. 16 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at St. Patrick's Parish Hall, 1087 Lillian Street, Willowdale (near Steeles Avenue East and Willowdale Avenue).

The theme will be "nostalgia" and to help carry out this theme, there will be an extensive display of photographs. There will be about 400 photos depicting the history of St. Patrick's church since its beginning in 1953 until the present time.

There will be an equally large display covering much of the history of Thornhill since the turn of the century for a 25 cent fee with all proceeds going to the church.

A new feature this year will be an old glass and china booth and during the afternoon there will be an exhibition of Scottish dancing.

Follow up law

RICHMOND HILL - Seneca College is offering a follow up seminar series entitled The Law - A Practical Guide.

All seminars are $5 per person or $8 per couple.

The first three in the series focus on the law and court procedures. Criminal Court, will begin Oct. 26 at Newmarket High School; Family Court, Oct. 27 at Williams High School in Aurora and Small Claims Court and Consumer Protection Law, Oct. 21 at Bayview Secondary School in Richmond Hill.

Each seminar will deal with precourt procedures, your day in court and the post court process.

Two additional seminars, of shorter duration are being offered in the areas of Real Estate and Income Tax, entitled Buying and Selling a Home, to be held Oct. 7 and 14 at Bayview Secondary School and Income Tax Law, Oct. 21 and 28 at Thornlea Secondary School in Thornhill.

Registration will be limited on a first-come basis. For further information call 884-9901 or 895-1581.

Modern women

DOWNSVIEW - North York Public Library's popular Women In the Modern Scene lecture program begins Oct. 18 at 1:30 p.m. at Willowdale library.

The first speaker, Joan Clarke, will address the topic of Dream Power. In following weeks the topics will be Assertiveness Training, Conquering Cancer, Parapsychology, Love and Liberation with colomnist Joan Sutton, and Superwoman.

To register, contact Phyllis Goldman at 494-6838. The fee is $1, and baby-sitting is available for the first 25 children aged 3 to 5 years.

New singer

AURORA - Factory Folk Theatre on Henderson Avenue presents Richmond Hill folksinger, Ray Sare in concert Oct. 15 at 8 p.m. The 23 year old folk singer is accompanied by his brother, Alan Sare, on bass.

Women meet

RICHMOND HILL — The East Central Branch of the Hospital Auxilliary will hold a meeting Oct. 12 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Stan-Leno, 10988 Bayview Ave. Final plans will be discussed for the bridge and euchre game scheduled to begin

Talks begin

AURORA — The World Around Us lecture series will begin its Wednesday morning meetings this fall on Oct. 13 at 9:30 a.m. at York Pines United Church on the Aurora Side Road east of Highway 400.

Guest speaker for the first session will be Ann Emerson who will speak about Aspects of Parapsychology. Admission is $1.25, coffee is served and there will be a free baby sitting service.

Art exhibit

The Faculty of Fine Arts at York University is sponsoring an art exhibition entitled "From the Sam Sarick Collection", opening Oct. 12 until Oct. 23, in McLaughlin Hall on the main Keele Street campus.

Works on display will include Eskimo drawings and sculpture. Gallery hours are noon to 8 p.m. Monday to Friday, and 2 p.m. until 5 p.m., Saturday and Sunday.

Admission is free.

Directions to McLaughlin Hall may be obtained at the Gatehouse at the main Keele Street entrance to York University.

Here's the newly-elected executive of Richmond Hill Rotary Club: (seated) Len Jones, vice-president; Bruce Lloyd, president; Joe Horvat, past president; (standing) Bill Harris, Gerry Crack, Bev Crok, Don Halliday and Ian MacLean.

urrounding Districts

We Deliver

to Toronto

Rice's Flowers RICHMOND HEIGHTS CENTRE 884-1812 Phone 889-1812

THE TOWN OF RICHMOND HILL

PUBLIC MEETING WARD 2

A Public Meeting will be held in the WALTER SCOTT PUBLIC SCHOOL, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1976, AT 8:00 P.M.

The purpose of the meeting is to hear comments from and answer questions of the public.

H. DAVID SCHILLER, MAYOR.

RICHMOND HILL - In an address to flowering bulbs now. A called Queen of Sheba, to early-flowering shrubs so and informed melody.

To improve a picture many things tember and October are grows from little pear- This small white bellcan be done such as elimination of planting months. unrelated areas, changing the view or angle of the camera, or placing the darkroom can improve composition. Mr. Suzuki spoke about the effect of lines, vertical, diagonal and horizontal and how they affect the feeling of the photograph. Vertical lines produce a feeling of power, diagonal lines, a feeling of movement and horizontal lines a feeling of peacefulness and quiet.

Suzuki showed the effect of changing the horizon in a picture to give a feeling of space or closeness.

Oct. 25, at Richmond Hill High School at 7:30 p.m. when a slide critique will be held.

the York Regional Camera Club last wide variety of tulips, brighten up any spring that their flowers and week, George Suzuki, a lecturer at daffodils, narcissus garden. Seneca College, said that three points hyacinth, snowdrops, make a picture: emphasis, simplicity camera closer. Suzuki said that the rule of 1-3's, and garden. For a change, selective focus, and the use of the

The club's next meeting will be on

on composition Buy bulbs now

really enhance your three inches apart. Ontario ministry of agriculture and food horticulturist R.A. Fleming recommends trying lily-flowered tulips, a variety called

THIRTY-NINTH WINNER in 1976 KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS AURORA COUNCIL

TOKEN 002

YCAMR "500"

Buy your spring Marietta, or another sunlight. Plant them near those of the shrubs will Glory-of-the-snow has complement one another. squills and many others sky-blue flowers with Another lovely spring are still available. Sep- pure white centres. It flower is the snowdrop. shaped bulbs which shaped flower, with inner Some of the lesser should be planted three corollas that show tips of known varieties will inches deep and two to green, are often seen flowering through the snow during a mild period They require plenty of in early April.

FREDERICK SWARD CHARTERED ACCOUNTANT

ANNOUNCES COMMENCEMENT OF HIS PRACTICE FROM OCTOBER 1st., 1976

P.O. BOX 402, RICHMOND HILL

884-3863

A demonstration on all the "How to" techniques for easy, economical home bread baking plus information on Flour

You will discover the joys of baking your own bread...truly a creative form of cooking ... and a lot simpler than you may have thought.

Prizes - Recipes

FOR COMPLIMENTARY TICKET

CALL: 884-9105 ext. 213 887-5847 ext. 213 895-4577 ext. 213

The demonstration is to be held in:

The Blue Flame Room on Wednesday, October 13, 1976 at 7:30 P.M.

500 Elgin Mills Road East Richmond Hill, Ont.

