

Sports travelcade coming this weekend

RICHMOND HILL — If you hear a car horn playing a tune that sounds like Ontario-ari-o this weekend, you'll know that the Ontario Sports Travelcade has arrived in town.

The musical car horn announces the latest stop of the culture and recreation ministry's 45-foot van which serves as a mobile information centre about all kinds of sports programs.

The travelcade will be open at Richmond Hill's town arena Saturday and Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m. and 6 to 9 p.m., and on Monday from 4 to 9 p.m.

Its purpose is to provide information and tips to athletes, coaches, trainers and anyone else interested in amateur sport.

The van includes films, slides, video tapes and hundreds of books and information leaflets. Also, a staff of four sports and fitness specialists are on hand to give advice and assistance.

Craft workshop for moms, tots

THORNHILL — Both mothers and tots will be able to participate in a craft workshop offered at the Gallanough Library.

The course, designed to introduce hand weaving, batik and tie-dye and creative stitchery starts this Monday and runs to Dec. 6. Classes will take place each Monday from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at the Gallanough Library.

Pre-schoolers over three years old will be involved in a "creative art experience" while under-threes will be "comfortably cared for by our sitter," according to the Vaughan parks and recreation department, the sponsor.

Fee is $25 plus material. Further information is available at 832-2281. Registration is taking place at the Gallanough Library on Brooke Street in Thornhill.
