Kinsman honored

Fall color in the park

TORONTO — Autumn colors are busting into flame everywhere. Metropolitan Toronto and Region Conservation Authority suggests all those who wish to enjoy some of autumn's glory do so by visiting conservation areas operated by the authority.

Here is a list of the areas, which are open from 10 a.m. to sundown:

Albion Hills, five miles north of Bolton on Highway 50;
Boyd, north of Woodbridge on Islington Avenue; Bruce's Mill, two miles east of Don Mills Road on the Gormley-Stouffville Sideroad;

Claremont, two miles east of Brougham on Highway 7, 1 1/4 miles north of Westney Road; Claireville, Highway 7, two miles west of Highway 50;

Cold Creek, midway between Bolton and Nobleton, two miles north of the King Sideroad on Concession Road 11;

Glen Haffy, south of Mono Mills and Highway 9 on Airport Road;

Greenwood, five miles north of Pickering off the Westney Road;

Heart Lake, four miles north of Highway 7 on the Heart Lake Road;

Milne, west of Town of Markham and south of Highway 7, off the Seventh line;

Petticoat Creek, White's Road, in Pickering, south of Highway 2.
