

Heard services held

RICHMOND HILL — One of Canada's leading astronomers, John Frederick Heard, died last week at age 66. Services were held at St. Mary Immaculate Church in Richmond Hill.

Heard, who lived on Cachet Parkway in Markham, was a former director of David Dunlap Observatory and professor emeritus in the University of Toronto astronomy department.

He was born in St. Thomas and attended the University of Western Ontario and McGill University. He received his doctorate in physics at the University of London.

He joined the U of T staff in 1935 and later served as president and vice-president of the Toronto centre of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada. He was a

Residents seek more sewage allotment

UNIONVILLE — Unionville Ratepayers Association is supporting a developer's efforts to get a larger share of the area sewage allotment.

After extensive negotiations with ratepayers, Craigmore Construction Ltd. has found it can build only 10 of 61 proposed townhouse units.

The company now says it will have to go back to its original plan for an open shopping mall if it can't get sewage capacity for the whole development.

The compromise with the ratepayers involved one acre of commercial development and the remaining five acres for residential.

Ratepayer President Ernie Nyitrai appealed to the Markham planning committee last week to find the excess capacity for Craigmore to allow the development as it is now planned.

The ratepayers were adamantly opposed to commercial development over the whole six acres, member of the Institute of Navigation and on the advisory council for air navigation of the National

You never had it so SOFT!

A fully automatic water softener, elegant enough to stand beside modern appliances right in your kitchen, even on broadloom — What more can you possibly ask for? A continuous supply of soft, soft water, naturally! You'll get it from Duro's CA-20, the fully automatic softener that comes in an attractive cabinet.

If water quality is poor, due to iron rust, clay, sediment, bad taste caused by chlorine, or even bad odour, Duro can supply a water filter that will eliminate those problems.

For softness and purity rely on Duro water softeners and filters.
